HONOR PRESIDENT

PITTSBURG POPULACE SEES NATION'S RULER.

CROWDS WERE ENORMOUS

HALF A MILLION PEOPLE IN SIGHT OF ROOSEVELT.

IS HEARD BY OVER 200,000

SMOKY CITY CELEBRATES IN STRENUOUS MANNER.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 4.—Half a million persons greeted President Theodore Roosevelt in Pittsburg today. They came not only from Pittsburg and Allegheny, but from the scores of industrial towns within 100 miles of the city. It was the distinguished guest's first visit to Pittsburg as president and his welcome was most enthusiastic. From the union station to the speakers' stand in Schenley park, nearly four miles away, it was one continuous cheer.

The weather was all that could be desired, with the sun shining brightly and the temperature not too high.

President Roosevelt reached the Wilkinsburg station of the Pennsylvania railroad at 8:35 o'clock this morning. At this point, which is within the city limits, the local reception committee, headed by George T. Oliver, boarded the train. The run into union station consumed twenty minutes, during which time the members of the committee were introduced to the presidential party, Attorney General Knox, who is a Pittsburger, making the party acquainted.

SALUTE IS FIRED.

As the train passed Shady Side station a railroad signal communicated the fact to battery B, of the Pennsylvania national guard, stationed at Bedford avenue basin, overlooking union station. The guns of the battery immediately commenced to boom forth the president's salute of twenty-one guns. The last gun of the salute was fired as the president stepped from his car at union station.

When the president stepped from his car at union station he was escorted along the south portico of the union station to the main entrance of the station, where his carriage and those provided for the reception committee were standing.

Those who entered the carriage with President Roosevelt were City Recorder J. O. Brown, United States Attorney General P. C. Knox and George B. Cortelyou, secretary to the president. The other carriages in waiting were promptly filled by the reception committee. The bugler of Sheridan troop sounded the assembly call, which was a signal for Brig. Gen. John A. Wylie, commander of the military escort, to order the movement of the column. The marchers numbered 3,000 men, representing the Eighteenth regiment, the Fourteenth regiment, the Tenth regiment, who saw Philippine service, Sheridan cavalry troop of Tyrone, the boys' brigades and independent military organizations.

BIG PARADE STARTS.

At a signal from the bugler of the Sheridan troop General Wylie and staff moved from their position at the Liberty avenue approach to the union station to the head of the column, and directed the start, and in a moment the whole line was in full swing on the four-mile route.

Among the prominent guests who rode in carriages were Governor W. A. Stone, Congressman Dalzell, Congressmen Acheson, Jack and Graham. Interest centered in the unique feature of the republican and democratic candidates for governor, Judge Samuel W. Pennypacker and Robert E. Pattison, respectively, both of Philadelphia, riding together in one carriage. They were accompanied by George T. Oliver and Albert J. Barr, editors of republican and democratic papers, respectively, of this city.

Flags and bunting fluttered everywhere along the course of parade. People hung from windows of tall sky-scrapers, yelling themselves hoarse in greeting of the nation's chief executive. The greatest ovation came as the line passed up Canyon-like Fifth avenue to the top of Grant's hill.

GREAT CROWDS GATHERED.

Tall buildings on either side of the street offered fine vantage points for spectators. Every window in the immense buildings was filled with enthusiastic people, women predominating. When the head of the military escort reached a position opposite the speakers' stand it was halted and stood in company front with arms at present. As the president and those in carriages passed in review the band struck up the stirring strains of "Hail to the Chief." The music was fairly drowned by the cheering of the multitude of 200,000 persons in the stand and occupying vantage points on the amphitheatre-like hillside which rose in front.

Following the band piece, the United German societies of Allegheny stationed at one side of the stand and made up of 600 voices broke into singing "The Star-Spangled Banner." At the close of the song the invocation was pronounced by Rev. John H. Prugh. The Declaration of Independence was read by Brigadier General Willis J. Hulings and then followed the oration of the day by the president of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt.

AUDIENCE SINGS "AMERICA."

After the address the German singers sang "America," the vast audience joining in the words of the final verse. Following this, out of compliment to the German ancestry of the distinguished guest, "The Lord's Day" was sung in German. The benediction was then pronounced by Rev. Dr. T. N. Boyle, presiding elder of the Pittsburg district, M. E. conference.

The exercises consumed just one hour. The president immediately after re-entered his carriage and surrounded by the Sheridan troop was driven to the residence of H. C. Frick, on Homewood avenue, where he was tendered a luncheon and reception which was joined in by a number of prominent Pittsburg captains of industry.

As the president left the park battery B fired the national salute of forty-five guns from a tall hill top.

HAS BOUGHT HAPPY HOLLOW

SOUTHWESTERN WILL ESTABLISH PICNIC GROUND.

Mr. Nelson Purchases Charming Spot West of Huntington—May Build a Pavilion.

"Happy Hollow," a charming picnic spot four miles west of Huntington, has been purchased by S. L. Nelson, general manager of the Southwestern. It is along the line of the interurban tracks, and has for many years been a favorite spot for picnics and other gatherings of the people for miles around.

There are five acres in the tract, situated in a picturesque ravine, with high bluffs on one side and the Wabash river on the other. A pretty grove covers the land, and one of the principal features is a famous spring of sparkling water, said to be rich in medicinal properties. Mr. Nelson will improve the land and continue it as a public picnic ground. He is considering the erection of a cottage and a public pavilion there.

RECOVERED HIS TIMEPIECE

CARL WOODWORTH FOUND A FELLOW WEARING IT.

Watch Had Been "Pinched" From His Pocket While in a Crowd Last Evening.

Carl Woodworth lost his watch last evening and several hours later recovered it in a most unusual manner. Mr. Woodworth was upon the streets enjoying the inauguration of the Fourth of July festivities and while in a crowd the timepiece was nipped from his pocket by some light fingered individual.

Three hours later Mr. Woodworth, who had given the watch up for gone, recognized the fob dangling from the vest of a young fellow in the crowd upon the streets. He promptly accosted him and demanded the return of his property, suiting action to his words by drawing the watch from the fellows pocket. The latter made no protest, but slunk quickly away and was soon lost in the crowd. His identity could not be established.

WILL USE WIRELESS SYSTEM.

Washington, July 4.—It is quite probable that the signal corps of the army will use a system of wireless telegraphy in the coming joint army and naval manoeuvres. General Greely has designated a special board to consider what experiments in communication will be attempted at those manoeuvres by the army, and the question as to whether the forces will attempt to use a wireless system in their operations will be decided by it. The navy department does not expect to use wireless telegraphy in the manoeuvres this summer, as it has not yet decided upon a system.

PROCLAIMS PEACE

WAR IN PHILIPPINES IS DECLARED AT AN END.

ACTION BY THE PRESIDENT

ISLANDS DECLARED UNDER CIVIL CONTROL.

AMNESTY FOR ALL NATIVES

CHAFFEE RELIEVED AND THE WHOLE ARMY PRAISED.

Manila, July 4.—President Roosevelt's amnesty proclamation was read at noon today in English and Spanish, from a flag-draped stand on the Luneta, after a parade of 6,000 Americans and Filipinos.

Washington, July 4.—The president has formally declared the restoration of peace in the Philippine archipelago, placed the islands under civil control and extended general amnesty to the Filipinos who have been in rebellion.

These three things, marking an important chapter in United States history and probably the most important in the history of the Philippines, were accomplished through the issue of three separate orders and proclamations—one by the president over his own signature extending amnesty, one by Secretary Root by the president's order relieving General Chaffee from his duties as military governor, and a third which takes the shape of a general order addressed to the entire army of the United States in which Secretary Root expresses the president's high appreciation of the work it has accomplished both in Cuban and the Philippines.

TEXT OF PROCLAMATION.

The amnesty proclamation is as follows:

"By the President of the United States.—A Proclamation:

"Whereas, Many of the inhabitants of the Philippine archipelago were in insurrection against the authority and sovereignty of the kingdom of Spain at divers times from August, 1896, until the cession of the archipelago by that kingdom to the United States of America, and since such cession many of the persons so engaged in insurrection have until recently resisted the authority and sovereignty of the United States; and

"Whereas, The insurrection against the authority and sovereignty of the United States is now at an end, and peace has been established in all parts of the archipelago except in the country inhabited by the Moro tribes, to which this proclamation does not apply; and

"Whereas, During the course of the insurrection against the kingdom of Spain and against the government of the United States persons engaged therein, or those in sympathy with and abetting them, committed many acts in violation of the laws of civilized warfare, but it is believed that such acts were generally committed in ignorance of those laws, and under orders issued by the civil or military insurrectionary leaders; and

RELIEVED FROM PENALTY.

"Whereas, It is deemed to be wise and humane, in accordance with the beneficent purposes of the government of the United States toward the Filipino people, and conducive to peace, order and loyalty among them, that the doers of such acts who have not already suffered punishment shall not be held criminally responsible, but shall be relieved from punishment for participation in these insurrections and for unlawful acts committed during the course thereof by a general amnesty and pardon;

"Now, therefore, be it known that I, Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States of America, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the constitution, do hereby proclaim and declare, without reservation or condition, except as hereinafter provided, a full and complete pardon and amnesty to all persons in the Philippine archipelago who have participated in the insurrections aforesaid or who have given aid and comfort to persons participating in such insurrections, for the offenses of treason or sedition, and for all offenses, political in their character committed in the course of such insurrections pursuant to orders issued by the civil or military insurrectionary authorities or which grew out of internal political feuds or dissensions between Filipinos and Spaniards or the Spanish authorities, or which resulted from internal political feuds or dissensions among the Filipinos themselves during either of said insurrections.

SOME ARE EXCEPTED.

"Provided, however, that the pardon and amnesty hereby granted shall not include such persons committing crimes since May 1, 1902, in any province of the archipelago in which at the time civil government was established, nor shall it include such persons as have been heretofore finally convicted of the crimes of murder, rape, arson or robbery by any military or civil tribunal organized under the authority of Spain or of the United States of America, but which special application may be made to the proper authority for pardon by any person belonging to the exempted classes, and such clemency as is consistent with humanity and justice will be liberally extended; and, further,

"Provided, that this amnesty and pardon shall not affect the title or right of the government of the United States or that of the Philippine islands to any property or property rights heretofore used or appropriated by the military or civil authorities of the government of the United States or that of the Philippine islands organized under authority of the United States by way of confiscation or otherwise; and,

OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.

"Provided, further, that every person who shall seek to avail himself of this proclamation shall take and subscribe the following oath before any authority in the Philippine archipelago authorized to administer oaths—namely:

"'I, ——, solemnly swear (or affirm) that I recognize and accept supreme authority of the United States of America in the Philippine islands, and will maintain true faith and allegiance thereto; that I impose upon myself this obligation voluntarily without mental reservation or purpose of evasion, so help me God.'

"Given under my hand at the City of Washington, this fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and two, and in the one hundred and twenty-seventh year of the independence of the United States.

"Theodore Roosevelt.

"By the President.

"Elihu Root, Secretary of War."

CIVIL POWER SUPREME.

General Chaffee is relieved of his civil duties and the Philippine commission is made the superior authority in the following order:

"The insurrection against the sovereign authority of the United States in the Philippine archipelago having ended and provincial civil government having been established throughout the entire territory of the archipelago not inhabited by Moro tribes, under the instructions of the president to the Philippine commission, dated April 7, 1900, now ratified and confirmed by the act of congress approved July 1, 1902, entitled 'An act temporarily to provide for the administration of affairs of civil government in the Philippine islands and for other purposes,' the general commanding the division of the Philippines is hereby relieved from the further performance of the duties of military governor and the office of military governor in said archipelago is terminated.

"The general commanding the division of the Philippines and all military officers in authority therein will continue to observe the direction contained in the aforesaid instructions of the president, that the military forces in the division of the Philippines shall be at all times subject, under the orders of the military commander, to the call of the civil authorities for the maintenance of law and order and the enforcement of their authority."

GENERAL ORDER IS ISSUED.

Finally the president, through Secretary Root, pronounces the following eulogy upon the United States army:

"General Order No. 66.—Headquarters of the Army, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, July 4.—The following has been received from the war department:

"'War Department, Washington, July 4.—To the Army of the United States: The president upon this anniversary of national independence wishes to express to the officers and enlisted men of the United States army his deep appreciation of the service they have rendered to the country in the great and difficult undertakings which they have brought to a successful conclusion during the past year.

"'He thanks the officers and the enlisted men who have been maintaining order and carrying on the military government in Cuba because they have faithfully given effect to the humane purposes of the American people. They have with sincere kindness helped the Cuban people to take all the successive steps necessary to the establishment of their own constitutional government.

THE DAY AT HOME

HOW FORT WAYNE OBSERVED THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

MUCH NOISE USHERED IT IN

RACKET BEGUN AT NIGHT IS STEADILY KEPT UP.

PICNICS WERE RULE HERE

MANY LEFT THE CITY TO CELEBRATE THE DAY.

Patriotic ardor that finds expression in waving flags, enlivening music, cessation from daily toil, general good nature and a continuous detonation of about every form of noise-making explosive known to the small boy are combining to form Fort Wayne's contribution to the general observance of Independence day. Rains, which have been almost a daily feature for some weeks give promise of passing the city by for the time being, and threatening clouds have given way to a blazing sun and a summer heat that brings back recollection of the old-time Fourth of July.

Battery B. under command of Lieutenant Ramsey, boomed forth the city's formal welcome to the holiday at 5:30 o'clock this morning, when it fired a national salute from the site of the old Fort at Main and Clay streets, though the young patriots whose hands and faces are now bathed in sedative oils were ahead of them by several hours. The small boy may have burned fingers and dimmed sight as the result of his enthusiastic but reckless patriotism, but his soul is bathed in a happiness that makes recompense for all his sufferings.

The din began in earnest last evening at nightfall, and down town the early evening hours were marked by a terrific bombardment upon every hand that shattered delicate nerves but filled the soul of the celebrators with joy. There was some cessation as the night grew old and the day grew young, but it did not entirely stop, for the late celebrators were replaced by the early risers, and all night long the noisy demonstration continued.

BANDS OUT EARLY.

Every band in the city had an engagement for the day at the picnics and other gatherings, and they were upon the streets early. The Lake Shore train from the north arrived, shortly after 8 o'clock bringing the splendid Auburn band of thirty pieces and eight coaches filled with passengers. The band played several selections at Main and Calhoun streets before its departure to Robison park where it is engaged for the day.

Comparatively few people were about the down town section this morning, for most of them hurried away to participate in some of the attractions of the day. Shops and factories, all the public buildings and most of the business houses were closed for the day, giving employes an opportunity to participate in the celebrations. Early trains in every directions carried many excursionists out of the city, but others brought in compensating crowds that kept the balance perhaps nearly equal.

POLICE STOPPED IT.

Dealers in fireworks report heavy sales, and the noise would seem to bear out their statement that a big bundle of money is being exploded in noise in Fort Wayne today. In addition to the old brands of fire crackers there are the cannon crackers, the torpedoes, the canes which explode persussion caps and numerous other noise-making devices.

One of the most vociferous of the latter is a home-made torpedo, composed of potash and sulphur wrapped together and placed up on the street car tracks. These explode with a frightful report when cars pass over them, and were frequently arranged in such profusion as to keep up a hair-raising bombardment as the cars passed. Nervous passengers were badly frightened. The size of the torpedoes increased, and the practice became a record-breaker as a nuisance last night and this morning. There was such general complaint from passengers that finally Manager A. L. Scott, of the street railway company, asked Superintendent Gorsline to stop it. The officers thereupon received orders to prevent this form of celebration, and men on the beats along the line were kept busy keeping the boys, and not always small boys, away from the tracks.

BIG INTERURBAN BUSINESS.

The Southwestern interurban line is doing a tremendous business today, every car entering and leaving the city being crowded to its utmost. The city street railway system shortened its service on all lines and there has been a tremendous movement of people to Robison park. Cars on this line are running every minute and a half.

Reports from the picnics indicate that all are being very largely attended. There are great crowds at Swinney park, Lakeside grove, Concordia campus, Zion's grove and in the grove on Indiana avenue, as well as that near the Church of the Precious Blood at Fourth and Barthold streets. There are music, games and refreshments, with an appropriate Fourth of July program at each place.

The Robison park management has arranged for a splendid display of fireworks this evening to close its celebration. This afternoon the race program at Centlivre park is certain to draw a very large crowd, and the sport promises to be fine. Much interest also centers about the shoot under the auspices of the East End Gun club, and "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in a tent also comes in for a share of the public favor.

WILL HAVE FINE DISPLAY.

This evening the skies will blaze with pyrotechnics sent up from every part of the city, but more than usually elaborate will be the display arranged by the residents of East Washington street, between Barr and Lafayette streets. A large amount of money has been expended for fireworks, contributed entirely by citizens in the square indicated, and some of the set-pieces will be notable. One of these, "Welcome," is fully ten feet in length, and will be extremely pretty. The "Good-Night" is another magnificent piece of large size. The display will be the finest private display ever given in the city.

TAKES A FORT WAYNE BRIDE

CAPT. HARROD, OF BUFFALO, WEDS MISS JESSIE SCOTT.

Wedding a Surprise to Friends—Groom Formerly Resided in This City.

A very pretty home wedding took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, 725 East Lewis street, when their daughter, Miss Jessie W. Scott became the bride of Captain H. S. Harrod, of Buffalo, N. Y. The guests were relatives and close friends of the bride and groom. Rev. Edgar W. Allen, pastor of the West Jefferson street Church of Christ, performed the ceremony.

The bride looked very pretty in a wedding dress of white Persian lawn over taffeta. Her traveling dress was of tan broadcloth with hat to match. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The rooms were very prettily decorated.

The groom was formerly a resident of this city and was at one time lieutenant of police for the Pennsylvania company under Captain Stoll. Capt. Harrod was sent to Buffalo some time ago to organize a police force and was elevated to the rank of captain. He is in charge of an efficient police force on the Allegheny Valley division of the Pennsylvania. The bride is a most estimable young lady, popular in a large circle of friends.

Capt. and Mrs. Harrod will visit in the city for a few days and will then leave for their home in Buffalo. They will be at home after August 1st at 66 Emerson Place.

MACHINISTS MAY STRIKE.

Chicago, July 4.—"A strike of 700 machinists employed in the Baltimore and Ohio shops will be called unless the company abolishes the piece work system," is the statement made today by Business Agent Roderick, of the railway branch of the International Association of Machinists. Mr. Roderick returned from Garrett, Ind., today and held a short conference with the Baltimore and Ohio officials. The conference adjourned till later without having reached an agreement. The piece work plan has been in operation in the shops at Garrett, but the company's attempt to extend the system to all the shops resulted in a movement by the men to abolish it. The union demands a minimum wage scale of thirty cents an hour.

THE FOURTH'S FIRST VICTIM.

Springfield, Ill., July 4.—Alfred Radcliffe, 10 years old, committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself with a halter in a barn on the farm of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tarwin, near Bath. He became despondent because his father, who lives near Chandlerville, had sent him no money with which to purchase firecrackers.

Cuba wisely, regarding justice and respecting individual liberty; have honestly collected and expended for the best interests of the Cuban people the revenues, amounting to over $60,000,000; have carried out practical and thorough sanitary measures, greatly improving the health and lowering the death rate of the island.

"'By patient, scientific research they have associated the causes of yellow fever and by good administration have put an end to that most dreadful disease, which has long destroyed the lives and hindered the commercial prosperity of the Cubans.

COMMENDS DISCIPLINE.

"'They have expedited justice and secured protection for the rights of the innocent, while they have cleansed the prisons and established sound discipline and healthful conditions for the puishment of the guilty. They have re-established and renovated and put upon a substantial basis adequate hospitals and asylums for the care of the unfortunate.

"'They have established a general system of free common schools throughout the island, in which over 200,000 children are in actual attendance. They have constructed great and necessary public works.

"'They have gradually trained the Cubans themselves in all branches of administration, so that the new government upon assuming power has begun its work with an experienced force of Cuban civil service employes competent to execute its orders.

"'They have borne themselves with dignity and self-control, so that nearly four years of military occupation have passed unmarred by injury or insult to man or woman. They have transferred the government of Cuba to the Cuban people amid universal expressions of friendship and good will and have left a record of ordered justice and liberty, of rapid improvement in material and moral conditions and progress in the art of government which reflects great credit upon the people of the United States.

PRESIDENT EXTENDS THANKS.

"'The president thanks the officers and enlisted men of the army in the Philippines, both regulars and volunteers, for the courage and fortitude, the indomitable spirit and loyal devotion with which they have put down and ended the great insurrection which has raged throughout the archipelago against the lawful sovereignty and just authority of the United States.

"'The task was peculiarly difficult and trying. They were required at first to overcome organized resistance of superior numbers, well equipped with modern arms of precision, intrenched in an unknown country of mountain defiles, jungles and swamps, apparently capable of interminable defense. When this resistance had been overcome they were required to crush a general system of guerrilla warfare conducted among a people speaking unknown tongues, from whom it was almost impossible to obtain the information necessary for successful pursuit or to guard against surprise and ambushes.

ENEMIES UNSCRUPULOUS.

"'The enemies by whom they were surrounded were regardless of all obligations of good faith and of all the limitations which humanity has imposed upon civilized warfare.

"'Bound themselves by the laws of war, our soldiers were called upon to meet every device of unscrupulous treachery and to contemplate without reprisal the infliction of barbarous cruelties upon their comrades and friendly natives. They were instructed, while punishing armed resistance, to conciliate the friendship of the peaceful, yet had to do with a population among whom it was impossible to distinguish friend from foe, and who in countless instances used a false appearance of friendship for ambush and assassination.

TRANSPORTATION PROBLEM.

"'They were obliged to deal with problems of communication and transportation in a country without roads and frequently made impassable by torrential rains. They were weakened by tropical heat and tropical disease. Widely scattered over a great archipelago extending 1,000 miles from north to south, the gravest responsibilities, involving the life or death of their commands, frequently devolved upon young and inexperienced officers beyond the reach of specific orders or advice.

"'Under all these adverse circumstances the army of the Philippines has accomplished its task rapidly and completely. In more than 2,000 combats, great and small, within three years, it has exhibited unvarying courage and resolution. Utilizing the lessons of the Indian wars, it has relentlessly followed the guerrilla bands to their fastnesses in mountain and jungle and crushed them. It has put an end to the vast system of intimidation and secret assassination by which the peaceful natives were prevented from taking a genuine part in government under American authority. It has captured or forced to surrender substantially all the leaders of the insurrection. It has submitted to no discouragement and halted at no obstacle.

OFFICERS AND MEN PRAISED.

"Its officers have shown high qualities of command and its men have shown devotion and discipline. Its splendid, virile energy has been accompanied by self-control, patience and magnanimity. With surprisingly few individual exceptions its course has been charactorized by humanity and kindness to the prisoner and the noncombatant.

"'With admirable good temper, sympathy and loyalty to American ideals, its commanding generals have joined with the civilian agents of the government in healing the wounds of war and assuring to the people of the Philippines the blessings of peace and prosperity. Individual liberty, protection of personal rights, civil order, public instruction and religious freedom have followed its footsteps.

"'It has added honor to the flag which it defended and has justified increased confidence in the future of the American people, whose soldiers do not shrink from labor or death, yet love liberty and peace.

"'The president feels that he expresses the sentiments of all the loyal people of the United States in doing honor to the whole army which has joined in the performance and shares in the credit of these honorable services.

"'This general order will be read aloud at parade in every military post on the 4th day of July, 1902, or on the first day after it shall have been received.

"'Elihu Root, Secretary of War.'

"By command of Lieutenant General Miles,

"H. C. Corbin, Adjutant General,

"Major General, United States Army."

WASHINGTON'S CHRISTIANITY.

A Poem Which Should Set at Rest the Recently Awakened Doubts on the Point.

That the religious poem found among a bundle of Washington's letters and manuscripts in 1827 has not been quoted before in the discussion which has been waged for some weeks over his alleged lack of Christianity is rather singular. It is almost enough in itself to confound the claims of those who have asserted that the first president was lacking in a deep feeling of religion, for the spirit of Christianity which it breathes is warm and pure. Such a poem would scarcely be found among the private papers of a man whose belief in the Christian religion was not of the most sincere sort. Its subject was the birth of Christ, and it isn't much of a poem, perhaps, but it is the sentiment which animates it that makes it interesting. As it is reproduced here it is in the exact form in which it was written by Washington, without the slightest change in spelling, capitalization or punctuation:

ON CHRISTMAS DAY.

Assist me Muse Divine to sing the Morn
On which the Saviour of Mankind was born;
But oh! what Numbers to the Theme can rise?
Unles kind Angels aid me from the Skies!
Methinks I see the tuneful Host descend,
And with officious Joy the Scene attend.
Hark, by their Hymns directed on the Road.
The Gladsome Shepers find the Nascent GOD!
And view the Infant conscious of his Birth.
Smiling bespeak Salvation to the Earth!

For when the important Aera first drew near
In which the great Messiah should appear,
And to accomplish his redeeming love,
Resign awhile his glorious Throne above!
Beneath our Flora should every woe sustain,
And by triumphant suffering fix his Reign,
Should for lost Man in Torture's yield his Breath,
Dying to save us from eternal Death!
Oh mystic Union! Salutary Grace!
Incarnate God our Nature should embrace!
That Deity should stoop to our disguise!
That man recov'd should regain the Skies!
Dejected Adam! from thy grave ascend,
And view the Serpent's Deadly Malice end;
Adoring bless the Almighty's boundless Grace
That gave his son a Ransome for thy Race!
Oh never let me Soul this Day forget,
But pay in graitfull praise her Annual Debt.
When Time, and Sin, and Death.

Mr. Sparks, the historian, found this poem in an old chest at Mount Vernon while searching for material to use in his history. This occurred in 1827, and seven years later it was bought with a number of other papers uncovered at the same time, by congress and deposited in the library of the department of state, where it still remains. It is an old book labeled "Forms of Writing," in which Washington copied selected deeds, bonds, drafts, letters, recipes and so forth. The verses follow a form of "Subpoena for Evidences to Prove a Will," and, after a little space given to another poem on a different subject, the next place in the book is assigned to a recipe "To Keep Ink from Freezing or Moulding." At the end of the same book are the famous "Rules of Civility" by which Washington guided his conduct.

It was perhaps the haphazard manner in which the religious verses were set down in the "Forms of Writing" that induced Dr. J. H. Toner to argue at first that it was not written by Washington, but merely copied from some newspaper, periodical or book without credit having been given the author. This is merely a conjecture without proof of any kind to substantiate it, but even if it were so it does not detract very much from the influence of the composition as a document testifying to the religious bent of the general's nature. He would not have taken the trouble to copy it in his own handwriting if he had not been entirely in accord with its sentiment.

SHOEWORKERS ON STRIKE.

Burlington, N. J., July 4.—Four of the seven shoe factories of this place were rendered idle today by a strike of employes which is expected to extend to the remaining three establishments tonight. The seven factories employ more than 1,500 men and women and of this number about 700 are now on strike. Shoemaking is the principal industry of Burlington. The strike is the result of a notice posted in all the factories announcing that when the works reopened next Monday after the holiday cessation none but non-union hands would be employed.

DETROIT EXCURSIONS.

Everybody who made the Detroit trip last Sunday on the new Steel Passenger Steamer "Greyhound" was delighted. Another opportunity is offered next Sunday. This is the largest and finest appointed excursion steamer in America. A veritable water palace. She carries 3,500 people when occasion demands. THE IRON HAND.

Mr. Dean has given us a very interesting story in this little book. Aside from the attack upon the great city department store, which is cleverly woven into the narrative, it contains some interesting characters which make the book well worth reading. Nellie Jimmy, in her life of opulence, as well as in her life of poverty, among her trials and temptations, is the principal one and appeals strongly to one's feelings, while Michael Hooley and big Ole in the complications arising from their efforts to assist the heroine produce many a laugh and dramatic effect. No story is quite complete without a child character, and in Little Jack we have one that interests us deeply. The attempt to expose the college society, the fight between Mike and the goat, and the tragedy in which the blind man figures are well written. The book is interesting throughout and very attractively produced. The Iron Hand, by Howard Dean, $1.00. The Abbey Press, New York. W. C. Baade, 116 Calhoun St., Fort Wayne.

LOCAL TRACTION WAR

COUNCIL REVOKES FRANCHISE OF L., R. & N. LINE.

Six Members of Council are Under Surveillance—Serious Time is Looked For.

Logansport, Ind., July 24.—At the meeting of the city council the Logansport, Rochester and Northern Traction company's franchise was revoked and the company ordered to remove its tracks from the streets. This order was not obeyed and the cars are still running and business is good. Some time ago the court rendered a decision that the company's franchise was good. Detectives are keeping tab on the six members of the council who make this stand, and armed men are patrolling the lines of the Logansport, Rochester and Northern company at night to prevent any interference during the hours of darkness. The majority of the council favors the line of the Boyd syndicate, in operation before the former people built a local line here. Something exciting is being loked for at any time.

The Logansport, Rochester and Northern Traction company made another move late last night which places a new phase on the situation. The company filed condemnation proceedings against the landowners from the eastern limits of the city east to Spencer park. Appraisers will now be appointed, the value fixed, the price paid into court and work of construction can begin.

Then this company will have a parallel line to the only big park and will begin to compete with the Boyd syndicate, which owns the other line. The outlook is threatening and there is no telling what may result.

WILL NOT TRY BISHOP TALBOTT

Harrisburg, Pa., July 4.—The board of inquiry of the Episcopal church to inquire into the charges against Bishop Talbott, of the Central Pennsylvania diocese, decided by a vote of five to four today that the testimony was not sufficient to justify the bishop being referred to the house of bishops for trial. The charges of conduct unbecoming a bishop were preferred by Rev. Irvine, of Philadelphia, who was unfrocked by Bishop Talbott while serving as rector of St. John's parish, Huntingdon, Pa., for alleged scandalous conduct.

Miss Grace Walter has left for visits at James Lake and Jackson, Mich.

The republicans will not find it easy to explain to the country that it was right or beneficent to continue the tariff duties which make the rapacity of the trusts possible.

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE.

When there is no longer a Fourth of July sharply distinct from each of the other three hundred and sixty-four days of the year there will no longer be a United States of America. The day and the nation are in a sense identical. The Fourth of July is a strenuous symbolism that embodies the sentiment and tradition that have come down to us fully preserved from sources a century and a quarter remote.

Now and then is heard the plaint of pessimistic patriotism that the Fourth of July is "not what it used to be"; that the day as an institution has fallen into decadence. And this is pointed to as a sign that patriotism is waning and the well-springs of national spirit drying up. Let those who believe so find comfort in their grumbling. The Fourth of July is not going out of fashion; the fashion of it has merely changed somewhat. The old-fashioned manner of celebration is a good deal out of date, but there is a reason for it. The country-town celebration is not so common as formerly. The people can get away. Cheap and rapid transportation have made a different kind of holiday possible and the people in large part prefer to go to the larger towns and cities to enjoy the parks and resorts usually nearby. There is a change from the monotony of familiar things at home and they are eager to enjoy it. The journey abroad to find enjoyment is quite as much a tribute to the significance of the day as staying at home to burn powder and shoot rockets in the front yard.

We do not have quite so much of the eagle-screaming, British lion's tail-twisting oratory as formerly, but there is a reason for that, too. Uncle Sam has grown to importance that makes it unnecessary for him to blow his own horn to attract attention. He is now easily seen, always heard and that with immense respect. We have grown too big to boast and great enough to be magnanimous.

Let there be no misgivings. The American school history will always teach that Washington was an American and George III. a Briton; that notwithstanding an untoward turn of affairs at Bunker Hill we still have the hill; that we finally did "lick the British all they wanted," and did it again in 1812 to show the first licking wasn't a scratch victory or fluke. It will teach Young America what the fathers did in Philadelphia this day, 1776, and what was done after the war was over and we were free. It will show how the young nation grew and expanded in territory and waxed in wealth and power until it became the mightiest of earth. But no concealment will ever be possible that it was the mother country we fought and over whom we triumphed. So long as American history teaches American youth these things the Fourth of July will not grow decadent and the youth of the land and their elders as well will not cease to observe the day—

"That gave us—
Hurray! Hurray! Hurray!
(With some hot fighting, our fathers would say)
Our glorious independence."

WITH DEADLY AIM

BANDIT TRACY TURNS GUN ON HIS PURSUERS.

ADDS VICTIMS TO HIS LIST

OFFICERS OF POSSE SLAIN NEAR SEATTLE.

TWO KILLED AND MORE HURT

THRILLING STORY OF TRACY'S COMMAND OF LAUNCH.

Seattle, Wash., July 4.—Tracy, the escaped Oregon convict, in a battle with a Seattle posse near Bothell last evening, shot and instantly killed Charles Raymond, a deputy sheriff from Everett who joined the pursuers, and dangerously wounded Deputy Sheriff John Williams, of this city. Carl Anderson, a newspaper man, was slightly grazed on the arm. Louis Seefrit, another reporter, was wounded in the face.

So intense is the excitement over the killing of Raymond and the wounding of Williams that an effort is being made to have Governor McBride call out the state militia. Tracy was last seen near Bothell and was headed for Seattle in a wagon. A special train carrying more than twenty-five armed men with Winchesters left for the scene.

The first posse was composed of Deputy Sheriffs Williams, Nelson, McGee, Bernier and Snyder. Tracy was seen taking the track of the Seattle and International railroad at about 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning by Jack Freeman, night watchman at the State university. He at once notified the sheriff's office and the pursuit began. The posse of deputy sheriffs was soon joined by a number of citizens. According to the late reports Tracy was concealed in a cabin on the banks of the Squak slough, two miles from Bothell. When the posse came in sight Tracy began firing. Williams and Raymond were both hit. Tracy then retreated and concealed himself in the cabin. Anderson claims to have fired three times at Tracy, but does not know whether he hit him.

Sheriff Cudihee was at Issaquah when word of the battle was first received, and immediately left for Bothell. Winchesters have been provided by a local hardware store, and the hunt for Tracy was taken up in earnest.

Late yesterday afternoon Tracy stole a horse and buggy and drove several miles. He abandoned it near Seattle and came in contact with a local posse at Fremont, within the city limits. In the encounter which followed he killed Policeman F. E. Dreese and fatally wounded a man named Riler.

DAY ON THE SOUND.

Seattle, Wash., July 4.—Captain Clark, of the steam launch H. and S., yesterday gave a thrilling account of the trip of himself and crew up the sound Wednesday in company with Harry Tracy, the escaped Oregon convict, who, at the muzzle of a rifle, forced all hands to embark and pilot him northward. For nearly ten hours Tracy was commander of the craft by virtue of force, finally abandoning it and escaping into the woods.

"We were in the company of Tracy from 9 o'clock in the morning until 6:30 in the evening yesterday," said Capt. Clark, who continued: "We had been working at South Point carrying oysters from one bed to another. I entered the company's house at 9:30 in the morning and found a man with a gun there beckoning me to the door leading to the stairs. I supposed the boys were playing some prank, and paid no further attention to him, or to the other men, but proceeded to eat breakfast. The rest of the men seemed unusually quiet, but even that did not arouse my suspicions. As the other men had all been apprised of the conditions, they were somewhat uncommunicative. When through breakfast I reached my hand into my pocket, and then, for the first time, the stranger spoke. 'Take your hands out of your pockets, captain,' said he. 'You have a gun there. It is no use for you to draw it.'

"'Who are you?' I demanded.

"'Tracy,' he replied.

"After ordering the cook to put him up a lunch he ordered four of us to tie the other two men of the party and then proceed to the launch. Arriving at the launch he helped us to get under way, all the time keeping his hands on his rifle.

"We set sail about 10 o'clock and it was his first desire to land on the beach near Tacoma, as he said he wanted to go as close as he could to McNeill island in order to take a shot at the guards there. All day he displayed the most daring recklessness regarding the taking of human life, and all day he exercised the most exacting vigilance to prevent us getting the drop on him in any manner or even from discussing the matter among ourselves for the purpose of forming a plan for simultaneous action. We were all unarmed.

"On just one occasion during the day did there seem to be for a single moment an opportunity to take him at a disadvantage. That was when, off McNeill's island, when he leaned over the side of the launch to take a shot at the seals. That was the only time during the day he actually shot his rifle, though he was constantly pointing it at men and objects. The seal was some 200 yards from the boat, and, in a spirit of bravada, he raised his rifle and fired at it.

"As he was firing the chance for which I had been watching seemed to present itself and I made a move towards him, thinking to push him off the barge while his back was turned. As I did so he raised up slightly as though he had abandoned the idea of shooting, and in order to elude any suspicion of my suspicions I turned my face away, as though to look after the boat. He fired, and before I could return my attention to him he had turned around and reloaded his rifle."

MAN BLOWN UP IN A BOMB IS AN AERONAUT.

Louisville Victim Has a Shop on Long Island Where He Has Made an Airship.

Louisville, Ky., July 4.—The Post says:

"The young aeronaut who was probably fatally injured in an attempt to descend in a parachute from a bomb fired in the air at a performance of the 'Last Days of Pompeii' last night, is said to be Leo Stevens of New York, an inventor who was entered in the St. Louis exposition airship tests in competition with Santos Dumont.

"He is said to have a shop on Long Island, where he has been experimenting with aerial navigation, and has so far succeeded that he had secured a patent on an airship and was going to do battle with Santos Dumont in the coming contest at St Louis.

"When he was carried to the city hospital, he gave his name as Dull, though his employers stated that they did not know his real name.

"The attending physicians say that the chances are against his recovery."

HERBERT IS CAPTURED.

Washington, Ind., July 4.—Joe Herbert, the murderer, is again behind the bars of the Daviess county jail, and this time he is confined in a carefully guarded cell. He was captured at the home of his father-in-law in this city. A patient watch was kept at that place, and soon the murderer's well known figure was seen to stalk through the darkness and enter the home. A few recruits were hastily summoned and a real battle prepared for. Men were posted in each avenue of retreat and the murderer's departure was awaited. Two of the most resolute watchers were hidden at a rear gate, and when Herbert approached it in the darkness he was allowed to get within six feet of the men, when both arose and covered him with revolvers. Seeing the hopelessness of escape and being without arms, Herbert surrendered and was soon in jail. Herbert has raved as a maniac since his return to prison. His mind is tortured by the excessive excitement for the past twenty-four hours. Edson is still at large, as are the two other prisoners who escaped with him and Herbert. Several reports of the arrest of persons answering Edson's description have reached the Washington authorities, but there has been no confirmation. Herbert's trial will be continued until the next term of court, when a new jury will be impaneled, the old one having been disbanded.

OLD LOVE FLAME AGAIN.

Dublin, Ind., July 4.—The life of Augusta McKee has been one of many matrimonial complications. Within twenty years she has been married four times, but has had only two different husbands. She married her first and second husbands twice each. Mrs. McKee was the daughter of John H. McKee, a wealthy farmer of Rush county. Her first choice was Thomas B. Scott. After eight years of married life with him she was divorced and soon married John D. Whitton. She secured a divorce from Whitton after two years. Scott in the meantime had married another wife, from whom he was divorced in a year. Augusta again married Scott and in two years they were again divorced. All this time Whitton had remained faithful to her and now he has taken her under his care for a second time. In each divorce her complaint was cruel treatment.

ANCIENT TORTURE

How it has Been Revived in Modern Times.

An ancient method of poisoning criminals was to force them to swallow large quantities of bull's blood. Bull's blood is really no poison at all. Yet the prisoner usually died in agony. This was caused by the congulation or hardening of the bull's blood in the stomach. The pressure of this solid mass on the heart, lungs and other vital organs almost always resulted fatally.

That's just like indigestion. If your food doesn't digest it remains in a hard lump in the stomach. Gases are formed, which crowd and sometimes actually displace other organs. Many cases of supposed heart disease are due to indigestion. The pressure upon the lungs interferes with breathing. A disordered stomach effects the whole body.

By the use of such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure all this trouble is removed. Before food can be assimilated into the system it must be reduced to proper condition by the digestive fluids. If any of these fluids are lacking, perfect digestion is impossible. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the missing fluids. Stomach troubles can't be cured by dieting. The system demands both a sufficiency and a variety of food. You can't get well or stay well without it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach to take care of any kind of good food. It renders dieting unnecessary. It digests what you eat. In this way it rests the stomach This rest soon restores the stomach to perfect health.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure helps the children too. Weak and sickly little ones thrive on it. It never fails.

"During the last few years my stomach was in such condition that I couldn't retain the food I ate," writes Henry Williams of Booneville, Mo. "Two months ago I commenced taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. A few bottles have cured me entirely I can now eat and enjoy anything I want."

POLICE GOT SHARE OF SWAG

SOME HISTORY OF MINNEAPOLIS POLICE.

Were in With Pickpockets During the National Convention in 1892—Fort Wayne Man Touched.

The unearthing of the stupendous police scandals in Minneapolis within the last few days calls to mind the experiences of some Fort Wayne gentlemen at Minneapolis in 1892, when the republican national convention was held there. The writer has no personal recollection as to whether Ames, the latest chief of police, was in authority then or not, but whoever he was, he was a "peach." The thieving privilege was farmed out on that occasion just the same as peanut privileges are at county fairs, and the police department, of course, was in with it. "Doc" Barnett, one of the most widely known crooks in the country, was fortunate enough to get control of the pocketbook or "dip" privilege and he handled it to perfection. The only stipulation was that there should be no slugging and probably no murder unless it was actually necessary. Barnett pledged himself as a man of honor that no violence should be used in relieving guileless citizens of their wealth. "If a man can't be a gentleman he can't work for me," said the affable Mr. Barnett, and from his point of view he was probably right. Another line that Barnett laid down and which he always followed was that "professional" men were to be let alone. By "professional" men was meant professional gamblers. And so it happened that a gambler could get so drunk that he couldn't distinguish Mary from John, might fall asleep standing up and all that and yet his diamonds and purse would be as free from molestation as though locked up in a deposit vault. Barnett had a smooth gang of crooks with him and each night the spoils were divided at the West house, where Barnett had a room—in fact, a suite of them. He never "worked" himself and would have passed as a millionaire or a politician, but he got all the swag every night and at the end of a "job" like the week at Minneapolis he paid off his men, divided with the police officers and pulled his freight for the next place. At Minneapolis several Fort Wayne gentlemen were touched up for money and diamonds. Among the losers of diamonds was Harry Latham, at that time a professional gambler from this city. He lost a diamond worth about $250 and he doubtless would have got it back before leaving Minneapolis had he "squealed" while he was up there. He was too sensitive, however, to let anybody know that he had been held up, and kept the matter to himself until some time after he got back home. He was then told that he had made a monkey of himself. He was given a pointer by a local friend, and being personally acquainted with Barnett, he wrote him about the matter and minutely described his stone. In less than ten days he had his diamond returned to him. Latham and Barnett are both dead, the latter dying about a year or so ago. He was a wonderful character and made this city his headquarters one winter and was a frequent visitor here for years. He never "worked" here, however. He made it a rule never to do anything in a town in which he was living or where he made his headquarters and he never made a mistake in sizing up a man with whom he wanted to do business. He always first thoroughly informed himself of the character of his man and learned his weak points, and then he went right at him like a salesman. He would go right up to a chief of police, tell him that he was going to bring a dozen or so pickpockets to town, promise that nobody should be robbed who could not afford to stand the loss and promised to return all valuable papers, and ask the chief how much he wanted for his bit. His argument was that suckers were born to be robbed, anyway, and that if he didn't get their money somebody else would, and that it was better policy to have the robbing done by genteel and respectable thieves than by an irresponsible knave, who was probably only working for a reputation. Barnett always protected his men and a man who got in trouble while working for him had no difficulty in giving bond in any sum and his legal battles were always fought to a finish. It is estimated that the earnings of his gang at Minneapolis were over $100,000, of which sum $25,000 is supposed to have got into the police department.

COUNCIL SPECIAL COMMITTEE HOLDS MEETING.

More Time Will be Taken—Franchise Proposition Before Board—City Hall News.

The council committee appointed some time since to investigate the proposition of the Jenney Electric Light and Power company for the sale of its plant met last evening and listened to the reading of a number of letters from cities which own their own lighting plants. Mr. Sordalet, secretary of the committee, has received a great many letters which throw light upon the whole municipal ownership proposition. They are various in tone and as more of them are awaited, the committee will defer making a report until it has had ample time for a more thorough investigation.

NEGOTIATIONS TO BEGIN.

Washington, July 4.—The negotiations for the treaty between the United States and Columbia by which we will acquire the right to build the Panama canal will begin in about one week, Minister Concha, of Colombia, having conferred with Secretary Hay on the preliminaries of the negotiations. Mr. Hay will be out of the city for the next few days and on his return the negotiations will begin. Minister Concha has been fully clothed with authority to proceed with the treaty. The main features of the treaty are pretty well settled, as the protocol signed some time ago was quite full in setting forth the prospective arrangement in case congress acted favorably on the Panama route. The amount to be paid Colombia for a relinquishment of exclusive rights to the United States will be $7,000,000 in gold, payable on the exchange of ratifications of the treaty, and in addition Colombia is to receive an annuity at the end of fourteen years, to be determined by mutual agreement at that time.

M. J. Carroll and Miss Nellie Carroll, of Bucyrus, Ohio, are spending the Fourth with their mother, on Thomas street. Mr. Carroll is a prominent manufacturer of Bucyrus and his sister is his private secretary.

RICH AND POOR ALIKE

Uric Acid Makes Rheumatic Pains Without Regard to Station.

It is very democratic—Rheumatism is no respector of persons. It attacks old and young, rich and poor.

Uric acid in the blood causes all of the trouble, and until it is removed Rheumatic pains will continue. As it continues and increases more or less disability will follow. We can remove the Uric acid with Athlophoros, and can tell you how to keep your system free from it after you are cured.

Immediate improvement will be seen with Athlophoros. It goes directly to the seat of the trouble and dissipates the cause. You will note better circulation, greater appetite, freer bowels and a generally better feeling.

Uric acid is responsible for more physical disorders and creates more complications than most people think.

You will find that your general health will be better if you can once get it out of your system. Athlophoros will do it, and one bottle will show marked improvement. It won't cost much to prove it, and we know you will be benefited. If your druggist doesn't sell it send $1 to The Athlophoros Co., New Haven, Conn.

DIED AT SAGINAW

FRANK GIBSON, JR., VICTIM OF RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

FATHER WAS PENNSYLVANIA YARDMASTER.

PENNSYLVANIA IMPROVEMENT OVER $100,000,000 WILL BE SPENT IN THREE YEARS.

Frank Gibson, of Wallace street, received a telegram from Saginaw this morning, informing him of the death of his nephew, Frank Gibson, jr. The deceased met death in a railway accident, but the particulars were not given in the brief telegram. The deceased was a son of Daniel Gibson and a conductor on the Flint and Pere Marquette road, with headquarters in Saginaw. He was about forty-two years old and a widower, his wife having died several years ago. His parents formerly resided here and his father was yardmaster of the Pennsylvania four years, before the east yards were established. The family moved to Saginaw about twenty-two years ago and Frank soon afterwards took a position on the Marquette road and worked there up to the time of his death. The older men in the Pennsylvania service remember the father of the deceased and hundreds of others will recall memories of Frank, with whom they went to school. The funeral takes place tomorrow at Saginaw and Mr. Gibson will leave this afternoon for that city. Yesterday was the birthday of Mrs. Gibson, who is visiting in Chicago, and Mr. Gibson had arranged to go to that city today. Instead he has a sadder mission to perform, which comes to him as a great shock, for the deceased was a favorite nephew.

PENNSYLVANIA IMPROVEMENT

President A. J. Cassatt expects greater progress in the next twenty-five years in the line of railway improvements than were made in the last quarter of a century, writes William E. Curtis to the Chicago Record-Herald, and he is preparing for improvements for the coming two or three years that will cost about $100,000,000. The entire road between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, on the Atlantic seaboard, and Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati, on the great lakes and rivers of the west, is being practically rebuilt, with four tracks from New York to Pittsburg, double tracks on the western system, and between Philadelphia and Washington grades are being reduced everywhere, curves straightened, new and permanent bridges erected, new rails weighing 100 and even 120 pounds to the foot are being laid, stone ballasting is being laid everywhere, and other improvements made for the promotion of economy and speed. Mr. Cassatt's idea is that speed saves fuel and repairs and it was this belief that led him to reduce the speed of a New York-Chicago fast train to twenty hours. Within a year or two this will be reduced to eighteen and perhaps to sixteen hours. The latter will require a steady gait of a mile a minute—that is, 986 miles in 986 minutes, which at present is beyond the speed of any long distance train in the world, although both the Reading and the Pennsylvania companies run short distance trains between Philadelphia and Atlantic City at an even higher rate, reaching 66.6 miles an hour regularly every day for the entire distance.

When the Pennsylvania Railroad completes its proposed improvements any rate of speed that it is possible for a locomotive to maintain will be safe upon its tracks, because the iron will be very heavy, the ballasting will be perfect, all grade crossings will be eliminated and the bridges will be so solid that they can endure any amount of vibration. It is expected, too, that the development in motive power will keep pace with the improvement in track building. Only a few years ago the maximum load for a car was 40,000 pounds; now it is 100,000 pounds. Already the 70,000-pound locomotives have been replaced with 120,000-pounders, capable of making ninety miles an hour with an ordinary train of five cars behind them. The rate of speed developed by electric motors is considerably greater, although science has not yet advanced to a stage where positive assertions can be made on this subject. In the suburbs of Berlin a line of track has been laid for testing electric locomotives under the most favorable conditions, and although the tests are private and the results are supposed to be secret, it is known that a maximum of 133 miles an hour has been reached. Some people question, however, whether human beings can be carried in wheeled vehicles through space at that rate of speed, but the German experts claim that there is no difficulty or danger provided the conditions are what they should be. The Pennsylvania railroad officials are not prepared to state what speed they expect to attain, but content themselves with promising to keep abreast of the world's advancement in all lines of transportation and mechanics. Between New York and Washington several thousand men are now at work straightening and shortening and elevating the tracks, reducing the grades and laying heavier rails. When the scheme is complete there will be no grade crossings in any of the cities or towns of importance between New York and Washington. The tracks are not elevated on trestles, but upon solid embankments of earth, sustained by heavy stone walls, and the track will be laid in ballast of broken stone. There will thus be entirely new roadbed for almost the entire distance, and probably the most expensive in the world. The elevation of the tracks makes new stations necessary in nearly all the towns south of Jersey City.

At Philadelphia almost the entire system of terminals is being reconstructed, including two new bridges over the Schuylkill, several tunnels and a new double-decked station at the corner of Market and Thirty-fourth streets, so that through trains between New York and the south and west will not be required to back into Broad street station, as at present.

At Camden similar improvements are going on for the benefit of the New Jersey and seashore travel. When they are completed all trains will enter Camden upon elevated tracks.

At Wilmington and Chester the road is being entirely rebuilt Hereafter trains will pass through Chester on an elevated track that will cost not less than $3,000,000, and in Wilmington a new belt line is being built around the city through the factory district for the use of freight trains. No freight will be carried on the passenger tracks, which will be shortened and elevated through the entire city.

The Pennsylvania company proposes to spend $8,000,000 in Washington erecting the finest railway station in the world, of white marble and of architecture corresponding to that of the capitol.

The company has already spent $5,000,000 in Pittsburg and will spend as much more before the new freight terminals are completed. West of Pittsburg all the tracks are being straightened and doubled, grades reduced and bridges rebuilt of steel and stone. There is already a double track on the Fort Wayne road from Pittsburg to Crestline, and it will be completed to Chicago before the end of the year. This will not only shorten the running time, but increase the facilities for handling freight.

Corresponding improvements are contemplated at Chicago, but the plans have not been announced and the details are not yet decided upon. It is known, however, that a new union station will be erected on Canal street, more than three times as large as the present one, and with this in view the company has been buying land in the neighborhood for several years. Additional freight facilities will also be provided and the Chicago terminals will be made equal to those of any city in the world.

OVERCOME BY HEAT.

Charles H. Piatt, an engineer on the Pittsburg road, was overcome by heat last evening as he was bringing his engine down to the round house from the east yards. He managed to remain at the throttle until the coal docks was reached, when he called the fireman to relieve him. Mr. Piatt was taken to his home, where he was very ill for awhile, but he is much better today and will be able to resume his work in a day or two.

WILL SET UP ICE MACHINERY.

Herman Regel, a construction man, who has just completed the work of installing a compressor at the city pumping station, will leave tomorrow for Kansas City, where he will superintend the installation of ice machinery in the big plant of the Ferd. Heim Brewing company. Mr. Regel is employed in similar work all the time and some of the greatest steam plants in the country, including the massive affairs at Fall River, Mass., were set up by him.

FRANK ARCHER HURT.

A telegram from Chicago this morning stated that Frank Archer, a Pennsylvania freight engineer, was injured while getting on engine 361 in that city at a early hour this morning. As the accident happened on the Chicago Terminal division no detailed account of it was rendered here. Mr. Archer is coming home on a passenger train, and the fact that he is able to make the trip is taken as evidence that his injuries are not severe. His fireman, J. W. Schnauffer, will come home on a passenger train, also.

KILPATRICK GETS OFFICE.

James Kilpatrick has been appointed mail transfer agent for the Wabash and assumed the duties of the office yesterday. It could have fallen to no better or more worthy person. Mr. Kilpatrick was in the employ of the Wabash several years, first as a clerk in the freight agent's office and later as foreman of the warehouse. He quit several months ago on account of failing health and took a position with an insurance agency, where he could be outdoors much of the time. He is in good health now and will give good service in the position he has assumed.

TRAVEL IS VERY HEAVY.

Every incoming and outgoing train on every road leading to Fort Wayne was filled with passengers yesterday and today and some of the trains, including No. 7 on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, were run in two sections. The agents at the various depots report the largest Fourth of July business within their recollection. A better time limit was made this year than last, tickets sold yesterday and today being good returning up to and including Monday, the 7th.

Agent Ross said that up to 9 o'clock this morning the Grand Rapids and Indiana road had sold over 700 tickets at this point. Mr. Ross had not counted the sales for the Pennsylvania, but they were immense.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

The old smoke stack at the Wabash blacksmith shop is being replaced by a new one today.

The Pennsylvania shops will run all day tomorrow and the Wabash shops until noon.

Nickel Plate Engineers Daniel McFee, Frank Tolley and George Quidore have taken a Fourth of July lay off.

The Pennsylvania motive power ball team will play the Kerr Murray team tomorrow afternoon, at Centlivre park.

Harry C. May, who has been appointed master mechanic of the Big Four shops at Louisville, is a recent graduate of Purdue university.

Victor Kalteyer, of the Kerr Murray works, is en route to Davenport, Iowa, where he will represent the Indiana Turners at a meeting next week.

The employes of the Bowser works were surprised and pleased yesterday by the announcement that the works would remain closed until Monday.

George Jautz, tinner at the Wabash shops, and William Engelking, a stone cutter for Geake, will go to Rome City today to spend a few days in fishing.

The "Three Little Taylors," a society composed of Wabash shopmen, is arranging to give a social at the corner of Wells and Cass streets some time in the near future, possibly next week.

Conductor M. E. Baum, of the Nickel Plate, has gone to Roann to see his wife, who is lying ill there. Mr. Baum had a finger crushed at Bellevue a week or two ago and has been off duty since on that account.

John E. Hebert, apprentice at Wabash machine shop, had an eye injured yesterday by a piece of steel getting into it. The particle was removed but not before the eye became quite sore, and he will be off duty a few days.

Arthur H. Meyers has resigned a clerical position in the Nickel Plate offices to accept one in the office of Shop Clerk J. H. Hobrock, of the Pennsylvania. This change is the result of the resignation of a clerk several weeks ago.

New equipment will be placed on the Burlington and Western road, which on Sunday was transformed from narrow to standard gunge. The old locomotives have been sidetracked and the box cars are being sold to farmers for grain bins at $12 apiece for the car body.

Charles Holman, who works in the foundry department of the Electric works, had his lower lip split in two and his tongue cut yesterday by the handle of a pair of tongs being driven into his mouth. The wound is a painful one and will keep him from work for awhile.

Indianapolis Journal: "As a result of the joint conference of the Order of Railway Train Conductors and Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, who have been in session for a week at Kansas City, adjourning on Tuesday, both organizations will hereafter be governed by an advisory board. One of the delegates says the conference was in line with the general trend of the age—that in these days organizations with similar objects are joined in one large body."

CATARRH

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the head and the bronchial tubes soon fill up again with mucus.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane or inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system, involving the Stomach, Kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh. S. S. S. expels from the circulation all offensive matter, and when rich, pure blood is again coursing through the body the mucous membranes become healthy and the skin active, all the disagreeable, painful symptoms disappear, and a permanent, thorough cure is effected. S. S. S. being a strictly vegetable blood purifier does not derange the Stomach and digestion, but the appetite and general health rapidly improve under its tonic effects. Write us about your case and get the best medical advice free. Book on blood and skin diseases sent on application.

BASE BALL.

This is the day of all days when the base ball player is expected to earn his salary for the balance of the season. There used to be a time when clubs in minor leagues had very troublous times in trying to hold together until "the Fourth." If it didn't rain and a good crowd turned out and the home club won, it was a pretty safe proposition that base ball would last another month or so anyway. It's different now, but still this national holiday is regarded as the best base ball day of the season and professional clubs that break even on the balance of the season have a pretty good thing if they can count their receipts for this day only as their profit on the season. Yesterday was light on base ball, most of the clubs laying up for the two games to be played all over today. In the National league there was ball in only one city, Chicago, where St. Louis walked Chicago's log in two clean, well played and close games. In the American league two games were played, and in the American association no games were scheduled and none were played. The results will be found below:

ARSENAL AT POLICE STATION

MANY OUTLAWED WEAPONS ARE CONFISCATED.

Mayor's Order Was Extensively Enforced Last Night—News of the Police.

Superintendent Gorsline's desk looked like the bargain counter of a gun shop this morning, the display being the fruits of the mayor's order to confine the Independence day celebration within limits the least dangerous to life and limb. There were a good many violations of the injunction against revolvers and cannons and the police captured about a score of these warlike implements and confiscated them. With the exception of these catches and some slight disorders in the crowds on the streets last night's celebration was a very orderly one. There was but one arrest, Detective Coling having the only prisoner at police court. He was George Brown, who was on his way from Ohio to Mentone to visit his uncle. He stopped off here to prime himself for a proper display of enthusiasm in meeting his avuncular relative and overdid the job. He promised to get started toward Mentone within fifteen minutes if released, and Judge Dreibelbiss let him off.

John Ryan, a West Main street saloonkeeper, reports that someone threw a beer bottle through his sign. The gravest complaint on the register is that of Albert Gunzenheiser, a Fairfield avenue saloonkeeper, whose place was almost wrecked by a cannon firecracker which passing roysterers threw in at the door. A big hole was torn in the floor and the furniture and walls were damaged by the explosion.

ON GUARD DUTY.

Superintendent Gorsline has assigned most of the night men to duty at the different picnics and other gatherings today. Officers Trebra and Reichardt were sent to the Concordia college grounds, Heller and Strodel to Swinney park, Borgman to the High Banks, and White, Murphy, McKendry and Lavanway to the Driving park. The other officers who are members of churches or societies having picnics were asked to attend these places and preserve order.

POLICE NEWS.

A SACRIFICIAL DAY

MUCH IS LAID ON THE ALTAR OF PATRIOTISM.

USUAL ACCIDENT CHAPTER

MANY FOURTH OF JULY CASUALTIES REPORTED.

FORTUNATELY NONE FATAL

FIRE AND POWDER DO WORK QUITE TRADITIONALLY.

About the usual number of unfortunate individuals suffered personal injury in Fort Wayne today in contributing to the patriotic jollification with firecrackers, cannon, torpedoes and other noise-making devices, though up to noon today none of those reported are of a fatal character. The mishaps consist for the most part of burned hands and faces, though in one or two instances there is a possibility that eyesight may be destroyed. Many physicians were kept busy during the morning hours attending the unfortunates, and the work is not likely to cease until the last firecracker has been exploded tonight.

TORE HOLE IN HIS HAND.

Charles Druhot, the fourteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Druhot, of 28 Force street, had a hole torn in the palm of his left hand at 7 o'clock last evening by the premature discharge of a pistol in which he was firing blank cartridges. A hole about an inch in diameter was torn in the flesh, separating the tendons from the bones and laying the latter open to view. It is believed the member can be saved. Dr. John Harrod was the attending surgeon.

HELD CRACKER TOO LONG.

Otto Barnett, the little son of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Barnett, was inaugurating the day this morning by firing crackers, but he forgot to drop one quick enough. It exxploded in his hand, burning the right side of his face and the palm of his right hand quite severely.

SHOT THROUGH WINDOW.

Some reckless celebrator who has not yet been identified, fired a bullet through one of the handsome curved glass windows of the Wolffs' clothing store this morning. The job of replacing the glass will be an expensive one.

TRIED A NEW PLAN.

Fred Kummer, a young man residing at 423 Wallace street, tried something unique in the celebrating line this morning. Mr. Kummer is a mute, but he is just as patriotic as his more fortunate fellows, and he was firing a small cannon in honor of the day. The load was not discharged, and to help it along Mr. Kummer stooped and fired a revolver point blank at the fuse hole of the cannon. The cannon's load was discharged, throwing the piece in the air as it let go, and Kummer was painfully burned about the hand, the back of the hand being literally sprinkled with powder.

HAND BADLY BURNED.

Herbert Gaskill, a boy living at 731 Lafayette street, had his right hand badly burned in operating a toy cannon this morning. Dr. C. B. Stemen, who attended, does not anticipate dangerous results unless complications ensue.

WAS A LITTLE LATE.

Ralph Harris, a Baltes avenue boy, stopped to punish his little brother when he should have been doing something else, and as a result has badly but face. He had a small cannon and his younger brother struck a lighted fire cracker of goodly proportions in the muzzle. Ralph occupied a moment in cuffing the little fellow's ears, and then started to take the cracker out of the miniature field piece. The fuse got in its work while the cuffing was going on, and the cracker did business when Ralph took hold of it. Dr. Lomas says the boy will not lose the sight of his eyes.

CAUSED A RUNAWAY.

A horse attached to a light buggy which was left standing on East Berry street this morning objected to the explosion of a cannon fire cracker at his heels and left the neighborhood on a gallop. He ran east on Berry street to Barr, turned north to Main and ran east to a point opposite the Central engine house, where he was caught by firemen and held until the owner arrived. The latter's name could not be learned.

LACERATED HIS FINGERS.

A little son of Adolph Schulte was holding a cannon cracker in his hand last evening when it exploded prematurely, lacerating all the fingers of the right hand in a most painful manner. A year ago the same lad suffered a painful injury to one of his feet in a similar manner.

TOY PISTOL EXPLODED.

A lad named Serviss, living on Force street, held his left hand over the muzzle of the revolver and accidentally pulled the trigger. The wad lodged between the bones of the hand and caused a painful wound, which was dressed by Dr. John Harrod. The 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grindle suffered a similar accident to his right hand. Dr. H. V. Sweringen dressed the injury.

EXPLOSION IN SALOON.

Somebody threw a lighted cannon cracker in the saloon of Albert Gunsenhauzer, at Fairfield avenue and Hendricks street, last evening. It exploded, tearing a huge hole in the floor and shattered a large quantity of window glass.

FOOT TORN BY TORPEDO.

Nick Sacrenty, proprietor of the Boston candy kitchen, on Calhoun street, was walking along the street about 11:30 last evening, when someone exploded a torpedo on his foot. The member was badly torn and an artery was severed, causing considerable loss of blood. Dr. M. F. Schick dressed the injury.

LOOKED INTO A CANNON.

John Douglass, living on Howell street, was firing off a toy cannon last evening, and when one of the charges failed to explode John gazed into the muzzle to find out the reason why. The cannon went off. John's face was filled with powder and his left eye was so seriously injured that he may lose the sight. Dr. Calvin picked out the powder grains and believes he can save the eye.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

In a few weeks the Pwllheli (Wales) harbor of refuge works will be commenced at Pwllheli. It is to cost $20,500, subscribed by the treasury, the Cambrian Railway company and the Cardiff corporation.

There is a revival of interest in old-fashioned cameo jewelry this year. One of the large manufacturing jewelry houses in New York says that it has done more work altering and restoring old cameo jewelry than it has for twenty years.

A physician mentions the case of a man who could be made to dream of any subject by whispering about it into his ear while he slept, and it is a familiar fact that persons who talk in their sleep will frequently answer questions if spoken to softly.

JOHNNY'S SUGGESTION.

"Yes, Johnny, the Cuban Fourth of July will come on the 20th of May from now on."

"Mama, wouldn't it be nice if we could go live in Cuba until about the 1st of June and then come home long enough to have our own Fourth of July, and then go back soon enough to catch their Christmas, and then come home again?"

CHINA APPEALS TO UNITED STATES.

WANT TIEN TSIN EVACUATED

WOULD HAVE AMERICA USE GOOD OFFICES.

APPEAL PRESENTED BY WU

SECRETARY HAY WILL ADDRESS OTHER GOVERNMENTS.

Washington, July 5.—The Chinese government has appealed to the government of the United States to use its good offices to cause the allied powers who still retain their soldiers in Tien Tsin, to evacuate that place in conformity with the spirit of the agreement of Pekin, which settled the boxer troubles. The appeal was made today by Minister Wu directly to Secretary Hay, in the shape of a cablegram from Viceroy Yuan Shih-Kai, of Chihli, which the minister supplemented with a long verbal explanation.

TEXT OF THE APPEAL.

The cablegram is as follows:

"Translation of a cablegram received July 4, 1902, (5th moon, 29th day) from Viceroy Yuan Shih-Kai, Chihli, dated July 3, 1902, (5th moon, 28th day.)

"Your cablegram of July 2 is received with much gratification. In the final protocol signed by the different powers, there is no stipulation that a supplementary convention will be made in regard to the restoration of Tien Tsin. But the foreign military officers at Tien Tsin have arbitrarily given rise to fresh complications and drawn up many articles limiting to 300 the number of Chinese guards to be stationed at Tien Tsin within the limit of 30 kilometers. Since the brigands in the vicinity of Tien Tsin, on account of the looting of the arsenals in 1900 are generally well armed, it would be impossible for such a small force to suppress [illegible]ish brigandage; much less can it police the city and vicinity and preserve order generally. The military officers appear to be willing to restore the city but in reality they wish to delay; there is reason to fear that their action is not by any means for the public good. The foreign ministers at Peking do not approve their action and they have repeatedly remonstrated with them; but the military officers have not been willing to come to an agreement. The ministers and the military officers each hold to their own opinions, which greatly impede the progress of our affairs. I request you to ask the government of the United States to consult with the other governments so that instructions may be sent to the different military officers direct, ordering them to accede to the suggestions of the foreign ministers to the end that the restoration may not be further delayed."

SUCCEEDED LI HUNG CHANG.

The author of this message, Yuan Shih-Kai, has taken the place of the late Li Hung Chang to a large extent, in dominating Chinese foreign policies, and the United States government is the more disposed to heed his appeal because of his excellent conduct during the boxer uprising. He was the principal means of communication between the outside governments and the legationers during their time of peril, and but for his strength of character, the entire province of Shantung would have been drawn over to the boxer cause.

Secretary Hay will address himself to the various governments, probably through Mr. Conger, at Pekin, and the foreign ministers there located. The situation at Tien Tsin is peculiar, and, in the view of the state department, the attitude of the foreign military officials there is perfectly unreasonable. The state department has satisfied itself that the foreign ministers at Pekin, whose governments are represented by these military leaders, are thoroughly anxious to have the treaty of Pekin executed in a fair spirit, and to that end to have Tien Tsin evacuated at the earliest possible moment by the foreign forces, so it will carry the Chinese appeal to the governments concerned.

FOUR WERE DROWNED.

St. Paul, Wis., July 5.—The casualties of the Fourth near the twin cities, include four drownings, and a large number of injuries from toy cannons and other explosives. No fatalities from explosions have yet been reported and it is believed all will recover. While there were many trifling injuries in this city, wounded by severely by premature cracker explosions and six were laid up by toy cannons. Those drowned were John Buckley, in St. Croix lake, having fallen from the steamer Cyclone; D. W. Emerson, in lake Calhoun; Paul F. Thompson, at Cedar lake; William Reber, in Kish lake, near Osseo. All four were residents of Minneapolis.

THE GIDEONS IN SESSION.

Cedar Rapids, Mich., July 5.—Nearly 200 traveling men, representing many states, were present today when President S. E. Hill, of Beloit, Wis., called the national convention of Gideons to order. The morning session was devoted to reports of officers and committees, which shows a gratifying growth of the order, which is an association of Christian traveling men.

The report of Secretary J. H. Nicholson, of Janesville, Wis., gave the total membership at 2,166 in thirty-eight states.

INHALED FIRE AND MAY DIE

J. B. SCHNITKER, OF ROME CITY, TERRIBLY BURNED.

Received Injuries in Explosion of Gas in Gilbert's Lodging House This Morning.

J. B. Schnitker, of Rome City, is lying in a critical condition at St. Joseph hospital as the result of injuries receied in an explosion of gas in the Gilbert lodging house, 1320 Calhoun street, early this morning. The attending physicians entertain fears that the injured man will not recover, as it is believed that he inhaled flames.

Schnitker registered at the hotel last evening and was assigned to room 4 on the second floor. He arose shortly before 7 o'clock this morning and turned on the gas jet, with the intention of lighting it with a match from a convenient match-holder. He failed to find a match, however, and started downstairs to find one, neglecting to turn off the gas when he left the room.

A light was burning in the hall and Schnitker hunted around for a piece of paper which he lighted at the hall jet and returned to his room. The gas jet had been turned on full force for nearly ten minutes and no sooner had he entered the room than there was an explosion that shook the building and Schnitker was hurled against the wall with such force that he lay stunned for a few moments.

Harry Gilbert, proprietor of the lodging house, hurried upstairs at the sound of the explosion and found Schnitker lying on the floor with his shirt in a blaze. Mr. Gilbert extinguished the flames and assisted the man to dress. Schnitker left the house at once and seemingly unconscious of his injuries walked down to the transfer corner and asked a bystander to direct him to a doctor's office. He was taken to Stockwell's drug store, 626 Harrison street, where Dr. M. W. Tinkham dressed his injuries. He was then taken to the hospital.

Schsitker was terribly burned about the head, breast, arms and legs and the skin pealed off in large sections as the dressings were being made. He gave evidence of having inhaled the flames and his condition is serious. Schnitker is about 40 years old and is married.

LOOKING FOR SUTTON.

Detroit, Mich., July 5.—A Journal special from Sault St. Marie says: State Attorney General H. M. Oren, who is in this city, said today that the state had detectives searching for Col. Eli R. Sutton, who is charged with having committed perjury while on trial for complicity in the state military clothing frauds, ever since his disappearance, which occurred immediately after the warrant was issued for his arrest. The detectives have just reported, Mr. Oren says, that they believe they have discovered Sutton's whereabouts and are about ready to close in on him.

ILLINOIS GETS WARRANT.

Springfield, Ill., July 5.—Governor Yates received today by mail a warrant for $1,005,129.29, principal and interest due the state of Illinois from the United States government for advances made by the state in equipping troops during the civil war. Governor Yates will endorse the warrant and turn it over to Auditor of Public Accounts McCullough, who will credit the revenue fund with the amount and issue an order to State Treasurer Williamson for collection.

IS OUT OF DANGER

PHYSICIANS PRONOUNCE THE KING SAFE.

HE EATS AND SLEEPS WELL

ROYALTY GIVES DINNER TO SLUM DWELLERS.

THOUSANDS FED BY EDWARD

AMERICANS CONSPICUOUS AT THE FEASTS.

London, July 5.—10:12 a. m.—The following bulletin regarding King Edward's condition was posted at Buckingham Palace at 10 o'clock this morning:

"His majesty had another excellent night, and he is cheerful and feels much stronger. We are glad to be able to state that we consider the king now out of danger. The evening bulletins will, therefore, be discontinued.

Signed "Treves,
"Laking,
"Barlow."

GUESTS OF THE KING.

London, July 5.—Half a million of London's slum-dwellers were King Edward's guests this afternoon. They were scattered in about 400 halls, schools and parks in varying numbers, the great number of the royal beneficiaries being at Stepney, where no less than 45,000 enjoyed a dinner such as they seldom partake of. At every gathering was read a message from the king signed by his private secretary, to the poor, sent through the lord mayor of London, Sir Joseph C. Dimsdale, as follows:

"Buckingham Palace, 11:20 a. m.—I am commanded by the king to inform your lordship that his majesty and the queen had intended visiting some of his coronation dinners today, and he deeply regrets that his illness prevents their doing so. The king has deputed members of his family to represent him at as many of these dinners as possible. I am further commanded by the king to express his hope that his guests are enjoying themselves and passing a happy day.

"(Signed) "KNOLLYS."

DRANK KING'S HEALTH.

This morning's bulletin announcing that King Edward is out of danger was also circulated, so that half million poor folks drank his majesty's health in no restrained enjoyment out of the coronation cups presented to each of them as a souvenir of the occasion. The prince and princess of Wales traversed the metropolis from end to end in semi-state, the carriages being escorted by a detachment of the Horse Guards, and appeared at central gatherings in several districts.

The principal dinner was at Fulham, where Sir Thomas Lipton, who organized the whole feast, did the honors of the day to 14,000 of the poor, aided by a host of titled and untitled volunteers.

AMERICANS WERE THERE.

These included Timothy L. Woodruff, lieutenant-governor of New York state; Vice Commodore Bourne, of the New York Yacht club, and other Americans who handed around plates of beef and pudding or filled beer mugs with an enthusiasm emblematic of the whole spirit of the occasion. The prince and princess of Wales paid their first visit to Fulham. They entered the park by the bishop's palace through a triumphal arch and were received by the mayor of Fulham, Sir Thomas Lipton and others. Their royal highnesses were enthusiastically greeted by an immense band of scholars who sang "God Save the King." The prince and princess alighted and walked among the marquees, where the guests were assembled around two and one-half miles of tables, evincing the utmost interest in everything. At the head of the table in the central marquee the royal party stopped and the prince of Wales read this morning's bulletin regarding the king's health.

SET CROWDS CHEERING.

This was the signal for a tremendous outburst of cheering. Before leaving the prince of Wales expressed to the bishop of London, the Rt. Rev. Arthur Foley Ingram, and Sir Thomas Lipton, his great satisfaction at the completeness of the arrangements and emphasized his regret at the fact that the king was unable to be present.

This was a sample of all the other dinners, which were followed in every case by variety shows, upwards of 1,500 operatic, theatrical and music hall artists and 18 pianists, giving their services [illegible] occasion [illegible] of the afternoon a second message from the king was read at the various gatherings, saying his majesty was very glad to feel that they were his guests and hoping that they would all be happy and comfortable and spend a pleasant afternoon.

Accompanying the prince and princess of Wales were the duke and duchess of Connaught, the duke and duchess of Fife, prince and princess Charles of Denmark, the duke and duchess of Argyll, Princess Henry of Battenberg, Princess Christian of Schleswig-Holstein and the duchess of Albany.

PENFIELD MAY BE REBUKED

PRESIDENT TO TAKE A HAND IN BAILEY AFFAIR.

State Department Rules and Canons Violated by Judge's Statement —Bailey Regretful.

Washington, July 5.—The Washington Times has the following item in reference to the Penfield-Bailey controversy:

"It is said at the state department that the president will probably not allow Solicitor Penfield's rough talk to Senator Bailey to go unrebuked. The state department has a certain code of propriety that must always be observed, and officials suggest that it is a most gentle way of speaking to say that the solicitor was neither diplomatic nor officially polite in the language he applied to the Texas senator. The fact that the president of the United States must depend on the good will of senators of both parties underlies the unwritten rule. It is said that an official of any executive department must use language toward a senator that is neither offensive nor indecent. Senator Bailey's close friends say he is beginning to regret his attack on Beveridge, and to regard the matter as a mistake which may cloud his prospects politically for years."

COUNTY FAIR IS ASSURED

NECESSARY $10,000 HAS BEEN GUARANTEED.

The Sum of $8,250 Has Been Subscribed and Business Men Have Underwritten Balance.

The committee having in charge the raising of funds for the county fair, has been successful in securing the amount necessary and the required $10,000 has been guaranteed. The sum of $8,250 has been raised by subscription and the remaining $750 has been underwritten by several Fort Wayne business men who have been active promoters of the fair.

A meeting of the fair association will be held next Wednesday and a permanent organization will be effected. The project has been under way for several months and the fact that the fair is now an assured fact is due to the untiring efforts of the committee appointed to raise funds with which to put the association on a good financial basis.

The fair will be held early in the fall, probably at the Driving park, which is the most suitable place near Fort Wayne where a fair could be held. The $10,000 will be used for the erection of buildings in which live stock, farm products, machinery, etc., will be exhibited.

MEETING OF FARMERS.

The Allen County Agricultural and Horticultural society met in the city hall this afternoon. The meeting was for the purpose of discussing the proposed county fair this fall and a large number of farmers were in attendance.

TENT MEETINGS TO BEGIN.

The tent meetings to be inaugurated by the Salvation Army will begin tomorrow evening in the tent situated on the vacant lot at the corner of Main and Ewing streets. Colonel and Mrs. Hathaway, Adjutant Gue and Lieutenant Wright, assisted by the soldiers of the army here, will conduct the meetings. The subject for tomorrow night's discourse will be "Weighed in the Balance." The services will be as usual and the promise is for a successful opening meeting.

The subject of Pastor White's sermon at the Trinity M. E. church services tomorrow morning will be "Light at Evening." There will be an Epworth league program in the evening.

FRIGHTFULLY CRUSHED.

The bodies of many of the victims were crushed and maimed almost beyond recognition and the scenes about the wreck were horrifying.

The accident was caused by a combination baggage and passenger car getting away from the motorman and rushing down the mountain side at terrific speed. The brakes refused to work and at the end of the grade the heavy car crashed into a loaded open car also descending the mountain. The latter was hurled from the track and turned on its side and over 50 per cent. of the passengers were injured. Those who were pinned directly under the car were crushed to death and in some instances terribly mutilated. The combination car also left the track and turned on its side.

VICTIMS LONG PINNED DOWN.

As the scene of the accident is remote from the city it was two hours before appliances to raise the open car and release the victims were secured.

The accident happened at a sharp curve where the track turns to make the climb up the steep mountain side. The wreck occurred at the end of a day of pleasure at the resort at the top of the mountain and the cars were loaded with excursionists. The car on which the dead and injured persons were riding was an open one in charge of Motorman Arthur Perkins and Conductor James Cameron, and the car which was responsible for the wreck was in charge of Motorman William Dodge. According to Conductor James Cameron, of the open car, the closed car ran away while coming down the grade, above the curve, and collided [illegible] the open car as the latter was curve. Both cars then went down the grade at lightning speed. At the foot of the hill the cars came together again.

LIGHTS WENT OUT.

Just before the rear car had reached the one ahead the lights in the first car went out and added darkness to the horror. The heavy double car struck the other with such force that it raised the rear end of the first car into the air and over the right embankment on the side. Both cars were derailed and the passengers were thrown in every direction. Many were killed instantly; others died from their wounds immediately afterward.

City Recorder Frank C. Wood was held under the car for two hours between two dead women with both legs crushed.

All the injured mentioned above were taken to the Nathan Litthauer hospital. Twelve other persons whose injuries were of a less serious nature were removed to their homes.

MINES SOON TO BEGIN WORK

PREPARATIONS BEING MADE TO RESUME.

Strikers in Wilkesbarre Region See Signs of an Effort to Break the Big Strike.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 5.—The movement of empty coal cars along the railroads and the unusual activity about several of the collieries in the region indicate to the strikers that an effort is to be made in a few days to start work at some of the collieries. The operators assert that they have sufficient men under engagement, both returned strikers and imported men, to man several of the collieries. While they will not admit that work may be resumed next week, there is a general belief that the effort will be made. In the Hazleton region the Pardees are expected to mass men at the Harwood colliery which, being on the outskirts of the region, is in less danger of attack than a mine in the heart of the district, and the coal can be shipped from it without being sent past any mining village. A number of miners are said to have applied for work in response to the notice of the company that it was ready to receive applications.

In the Wyoming region all indications point to a resumption of work at the Nanticoke No. 5 colliery of the Susquehanna Coal company. This mine is situated at the edge of the Wyoming basin and its output goes over the Pennsylvania railroad.

It is also stated that from the Wyoming division mines of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company one colliery will be selected at which work is to be started. The officials say enough miners of the division have asked for work to man a colliery. Some empty coal cars were today placed on sidings near a couple of these collieries and there is a bustle about the workings which indicates that some move is about to be made.

The Delaware and Hudson and the Lehigh Valley companies are also busy with preparations which make it appear as if at a time understood by the operators each company will try to break the strike.

The officials of the union, cognizant of what is being done, are busy. Pickets are watching the mines, and all moves are reported to headquarters, and if any effort is made to gather men the strikers will endeavor, by large picket committees, to see them before they go to work and dissuade them. In the Hazleton region they turned many back this morning, an especially strong picket line being established about the Drifton colliery of the Coxe Bros. & Co., where the building of a strong barbed wire stockade, backed with barricades, yesterday, lends color to the belief that an effort is to be made there to resume work.

WILL ATTEND CONVENTION.

Rev. and Mrs. J. N. Field will leave on Monday for an extended vacation trip in the east. They will go to Providence, R. I., to attend the international convention of the Baptist Young People's union, which will be attended by about 8,000 delegates. Rev. Field is on the program for addresses on Friday afternoon and on Sunday evening. He will also preach a sermon Sunday morning in the Cranston Avenue Baptist church, of which Rev. L. L. Henson, formerly of this city, is pastor.

There will be communion, baptism and reception of new members at Bethany Presbyterian church, corner Boone and Fry streets, at the morning service tomorrow.

Our Price 10c — Our Price 10c

It is gratifying to be one of the first to introduce a really meritorious article, but still our store is noted for being the first to secure the best of everything. We were fortunate in getting hold of a lot of Munyon's Witch Hazel Soap which we were selling at about half price. This soap is sold all over the country at 15 cents a cake; our price is 10 cents. You can pay 25, 50 and 75 cents a cake for soap and not get as good. Dr. Munyon says that every ingredient in this soap is pure enough to eat; that it is free from all animal fat and alkalies; that it will positively improve any complexion and cure nearly every form of skin disease. The tremendous sale we are having on this soap shows that the public appreciates this new toilet requisite. Mothers find it just the soap for baby as it cures hives, prickle heat and all forms of rash. It is said to be the best shampoo made. It quickly cures dandruff and most scalp diseases. It is largely used by gentlemen for shaving as it softens the beard and prevents all skin irritations.

A farmer who was driving to town from the east had a runaway on Maumee avenue, his team becoming frightened by the discharge of a big firecracker. The team ran several blocks, but was stopped before any serious damage was done.

James Pratt, of Adrian, Mich., is the guest of his son, Fred Pratt, of the east side. When the large smokestack for the Pennsylvania machine shop was built, in 1865, Mr. Pratt was employed by his uncle, George Pratt, on the work, and carried all the bricks up the interior of the stack, accomplishing the ascent by means of hickory stakes driven in the masonry as the structure rose. The stack is now in process of demolition and Mr. Pratt was on hand to view the rapid destruction of what he remembers as a piece of painstaking labor.

THE KING'S CONDITION.

London, July 4.—The bulletin regarding King Edward's condition posted at Buckingham Palace at 10 o'clock this morning says:

"The king had a good night and, indeed, slept better than at any time since the operation. The wound now gives less trouble, and his majesty can move in bed with greater ease. His majesty's appetite has improved.

DRUNKEN CATTLE.

Chicago, July 4.—Maddened and half intoxicated from alcohol used in "distillery slop" fed to them, a big herd of cattle stampeded in the stockyards yesterday. More than a score of the animals met death in the rush. Scenes were enacted that for terror and blood made old stockmen and cowboys turn their backs. One man nearly lost his life. The herd stampeded numbered more than 600. A closed gate caused the trouble, and before it was over twenty-one animals lay in a heap, some impaled on horns, others with neck broken and others frantically climbing over the squirming mass, while some of the survivors leaped fences and escaped to various parts of the yards. A dead wall of cattle finally brought the rush of animals to a halt. The herd only stopped when the pressure behind gave way because of lessening numbers.

TO BE BRIDE OF A SOLDIER.

The couple will locate at West Point, where the lieutenant has lately been assigned to duty as instructor in Spanish.

RAINS FLOOD A BIG SEWER

WORK ON SOUTH WAYNE CONDUIT AT STANDSTILL.

Nothing Will be Attempted Until Weather Improves—Paving Work Goes On.

Yesterday the sewer contractors had a force of men and pumps at work to relieve the South Wayne sewer of surplus water so that work could be resumed today. After an expenditure of about $100 it was found this morning that the water had been working while the sewer builders slept and things were back to the old condition. Nothing further will be attempted until the high water subside.

PAVING WORK GOES ON.

The Barber asphalt men are at work on Buchanan street and the streets is being rapidly ripped up from beginning to end. The concrete gang is at work on East Wayne street and Columbia street remains in statu quo. Mr. Moellering is unfortunate in having a contract to furnish the Barber company broken stone for their work and their rights are prior to his own according to the contract. This leaves Mr. Moellering in the position of having to furnish stone to competing contractors before he can get a bushel for his own contracts. In some respects the average contractor resembles the lily to which King Solomon referred with much feeling some years ago.

BOARD OF WORKS.

The board of works will meet in regular session this evening and will receive and open a number of bids for public work Among them will be bids for grading and paving the alley between Wayne and Washington streets from Jackson street to Union street; grading Begue street and laying sidewalks on the same street from Liberty street to Erie street; grading and paving the alley between Wayne and Washington street from Clinton street to a point 245 feet west of Clinton street; grading and paving the alley between Calhoun and Clinton streets from Montgomery to Holman streets; construction of a sidewalk on the south side of High street from St. Mary's avenue to Franklin avenue; constructing a vitrified clay pipe sewer in the alley east of Fairfield avenue from the sewer in the alley between DeWald street and Creighton avenue, to Creighton avenue; constructing a sewer through lot 4 in Wilding's addition from Walton avenue to the alley east. The assessment rolls on the following improvements will also come up for confirmation: For grading the alley between Putnam street and Archer avenue from Short street to Hench street; for the clay pipe sewer in the alley west of Lafayette street from Suttenfield street to Woodlawn avenue.

CITY HALL NOTES.

The new street sweeper ordered by the board of works over a month ago will arrive next week and will be put into immediate service.

IN JUSTICES' COURTS.

The surety of the peace case on trial in France's court for two days, brought by Lincoln Johnson on behalf of his wife against Mrs. William T. Jeffries, was terminated this morning by the dismissal of the cause, the costs of the action being taxed against the complaining witness. There was a volume of testimony introduced, but the justice decided that there was no sufficient ground for the requirement of a bond.

TALKS OF GAS SITUATION

MR. HUFFMAN DUBIOUS ABOUT THE FUTURE.

Tells Bluffton People Meters Will Not Be Required—May Manufacture Gas Here.

G. Max Huffman, the jolly German who superintends the field work and pipe lines of the Fort Wayne Gas company, was in the city today on business with the board of review, says the Bluffton News. Mr. Huffman in conversation with a News reporter stated that Bluffton people would not be required to put in meters for this winter as other cities have been compelled to do, but that gas would be sold as heretofore. The reason given for not adopting meters in Bluffton is that the company is not expecting to furnish natural gas any longer than next winter and it would not pay to put in meters for one winter.

The company has drilled twenty new wells this summer and they have an average pressure of only thirty-five pounds, whereas when the field was new 335 pounds was the normal pressure. "There will be plenty of gas to supply Bluffton and Fort Wayne during the coming winter," said Mr. Huffman, "but further than that we make no promises. It is possible that Bluffton may have gas longer than Fort Wayne. It is twenty-five miles nearer the field and should the gas be cut off from Fort Wayne enough might still be secured to run Bluffton for a year or two. It could be pumped through the old line and the Fort Wayne line taken up."

Mr. Huffman stated that the company may manufacture gas for the use of Fort Wayne, but that depends on the cost of coal and the prices they could get for the gas. The pumping stations will not be enlarged as the gas company does not believe there is gas pressure enough in the field to justify such an expense.

ESTABLISHED 1833. FORT WAYNE, IND., FRIDAY, JULY 4, 1902. PRICE TWO CENTS

HONOR PRESIDENT

PITTSBURG POPULACE SEES NATION'S RULER.

CROWDS WERE ENORMOUS

HALF A MILLION PEOPLE IN SIGHT OF ROOSEVELT.

IS HEARD BY OVER 200,000

SMOKY CITY CELEBRATES IN STRENUOUS MANNER.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 4.—Half a million persons greeted President Theodore Roosevelt in Pittsburg today. They came not only from Pittsburg and Allegheny, but from the scores of industrial towns within 100 miles of the city. It was the distinguished guest's first visit to Pittsburg as president and his welcome was most enthusiastic. From the union station to the speakers' stand in Schenley park, nearly four miles away, it was one continuous cheer.

The weather was all that could be desired, with the sun shining brightly and the temperature not too high.

President Roosevelt reached the Wilkinsburg station of the Pennsylvania railroad at 8:35 o'clock this morning. At this point, which is within the city limits, the local reception committee, headed by George T. Oliver, boarded the train. The run into union station consumed twenty minutes, during which time the members of the committee were introduced to the presidential party. Attorney General Knox, who is a Pittsburger, making the party acquainted.

SALUTE IS FIRED.

As the train passed Shady Side station a railroad signal communicated the fact to battery B, of the Pennsylvania national guard, stationed at Bedford avenue basin, overlooking union station. The guns of the battery immediately commenced to boom forth the president's salute of twenty-one guns. The last gun of the salute was fired as the president stepped from his car at union station.

When the president stepped from his car at union station he was escorted along the south portion of the union station to the main entrance of the station, where his carriage and those provided for the reception committee were standing.

Those who entered the carriage with President Roosevelt were City Recorder J. O. Brown, United States Attorney General P. C. Knox and George B. Cortelyou, secretary to the president. The other carriages in waiting were promptly filled by the reception committee. The bugler of Sheridan troop sounded the assembly call, which was a signal for Brig. Gen. John A. Wylie, commander of the military escort, to order the movement of the column. The marchers numbered 3,000 men, representing the Eighteenth regiment, the Fourteenth regiment, the Tenth regiment, who saw Philippine service, Sheridan cavalry troop of Tyrone, the boys' brigades and independent military organizations.

BIG PARADE STARTS.

At a signal from the bugler of the Sheridan troop General Wylie and staff moved from their position at the Liberty avenue approach to the union station to the head of the column, and directed the start, and in a moment the whole line was in full swing on the four-mile route.

Among the prominent guests who rode in carriages were Governor W. A. Stone, Congressman Dalzell, Congressmen Acheson, Jack and Graham. Interest centered in the unique feature of the republican and democratic candidates for governor, Judge Samuel W. Pennypacker and Robert E. Pattison, respectively, both of Philadelphia, riding together in one carriage. They were accompanied by George T. Oliver and Albert J. Barr, editors of republican and democratic papers, respectively, of this city.

Flags and bunting fluttered everywhere along the course of parade. People hung from windows of tall sky-scrapers, yelling themselves hoarse in greeting of the nation's chief executive. The greatest ovation came as the line passed up Canyon-like Fifth avenue to the top of Grant's hill.

GREAT CROWDS GATHERED.

Tall buildings on either side of the street offered fine vantage points for spectators. Every window in the immense buildings was filled with enthusiastic people, women predominating. When the head of the military escort reached a position opposite the speakers' stand it was halted and stood in company front with arms at present. As the president and those in carriages passed in review the band struck up the stirring strains of "Hail to the Chief." The music was fairly drowned by the cheering of the multitude of 200,000 persons in the stand and occupying vantage points on the amphitheatre-like hillside which rose in front.

Following the band piece, the United German societies of Allegheny stationed at one side of the stand and made up of 600 voices broke into singing "The Star-Spangled Banner." At the close of the song the invocation was pronounced by Rev. John H. Prugh. The Declaration of Independence was read by Brigadier General Willis J. Hulings and then followed the oration of the day by the president of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt.

AUDIENCE SINGS "AMERICA."

After the address the German singers sang "America," the vast audience joining in the words of the final verse. Following this, out of compliment to the German ancestry of the distinguished guest, "The Lord's Day" was sung in German. The benediction was then pronounced by Rev. Dr. T. N. Boyle, presiding elder of the Pittsburg district, M. E. conference.

The exercises consumed just one hour. The president immediately after re-entered his carriage and surrounded by the Sheridan troop was driven to the residence of H. C. Frick, on Homewood avenue, where he was tendered a luncheon and reception which was joined in by a number of prominent Pittsburg captains of industry.

As the president left the park battery B fired the national salute of forty-five guns from a tall hill top.

HAS BOUGHT HAPPY HOLLOW

SOUTHWESTERN WILL ESTABLISH PICNIC GROUND.

Mr. Nelson Purchases Charming Spot West of Huntington—May Build a Pavilion.

"Happy Hollow," a charming picnic spot four miles west of Huntington, has been purchased by S. L. Nelson, general manager of the Southwestern. It is along the line of the interurban tracks, and has for many years been a favorite spot for picnics and other gatherings of the people for miles around.

There are five acres in the tract, situated in a picturesque ravine, with high bluffs on one side and the Wabash river on the other. A pretty grove covers the land, and one of the principal features is a famous spring of sparkling water, said to be rich in medicinal properties. Mr. Nelson will improve the land and continue it as a public picnic ground. He is considering the erection of a cottage and a public pavilion there.

RECOVERED HIS TIMEPIECE

CARL WOODWORTH FOUND A FELLOW WEARING IT.

Watch Had Been "Pinched" From His Pocket While in a Crowd Last Evening.

Carl Woodworth lost his watch last evening and several hours later recovered it in a most unusual manner. Mr. Woodworth was upon the streets enjoying the inauguration of the Fourth of July festivities and while in a crowd the timepiece was nipped from his pocket by some light fingered individual.

Three hours later Mr. Woodworth, who had given the watch up for gone, recognized the fob dangling from the vest of a young fellow in the crowd upon the streets. He promptly accosted him and demanded the return of his property, suiting action to his words by drawing the watch from the fellows pocket. The latter made no protest, but slunk quickly away and was soon lost in the crowd. His identity could not be established.

WILL USE WIRELESS SYSTEM.

Washington, July 4.—It is quite probable that the signal corps of the army will use a system of wireless telegraphy in the coming joint army and naval manoeuvres. General Greely has designated a special board to consider what experiments in communication will be attempted at those manoeuvres by the army, and the question as to whether the forces will attempt to use a wireless system in their operations will be decided by it. The navy department does not expect to use wireless telegraphy in the manoeuvres this summer, as it has not yet decided upon a system.

PROCLAIMS PEACE

WAR IN PHILIPPINES IS DECLARED AT AN END.

ACTION BY THE PRESIDENT

ISLANDS DECLARED UNDER CIVIL CONTROL.

AMNESTY FOR ALL NATIVES

CHAFFEE BELIEVED AND THE WHOLE ARMY PRAISED.

Manila, July 4.—President Roosevelt's amnesty proclamation was read at noon today in English and Spanish, from a flag-draped stand on the Luneta, after a parade of 6,000 Americans and Filipinos.

Washington, July 4.—The president has formally declared the restoration of peace in the Philippine archipelago, placed the islands under civil control and extended general amnesty to the Filipinos who have been in rebellion.

These three things, marking an important chapter in United States history and probably the most important in the history of the Philippines, were accomplished through the issue of three separate orders and proclamations—one by the president over his own signature extending amnesty, one by Secretary Root by the president's order relieving General Chaffee from his duties as military governor and a third which takes the shape of a general order addressed to the entire army of the United States in which Secretary Root expresses the president's high appreciation of the work it has accomplished both in Cuban and the Philippines.

TEXT OF PROCLAMATION.

The amnesty proclamation is as follows:

"By the President of the United States.—A Proclamation:

"Whereas, Many of the inhabitants of the Philippine archipelago were in insurrection against the authority and sovereignty of the kingdom of Spain at divers times from August, 1896, until the cession of the archipelago by that kingdom to the United States of America, and since such cession many of the persons so engaged in insurrection have until recently resisted the authority and sovereignty of the United States; and

"Whereas, The insurrection against the authority and sovereignty of the United States is now at an end, and peace has been established in all parts of the archipelago except in the country inhabited by the Moro tribes, to which this proclamation does not apply, and

"Whereas, During the course of the insurrection against the kingdom of Spain and against the government of the United States persons engaged therein, or there in sympathy with and abetting them, committed many acts in violation of the laws of civilized warfare, but it is believed that such acts were generally committed in ignorance of those laws, and under orders issued by the civil or military insurrectionary leaders; and

RELIEVED FROM PENALTY.

"Whereas, It is deemed to be wise and humane, in accordance with the beneficent purposes of the government of the United States toward the Filipino people, and conducive to peace, order and loyalty among them, that the doers of such acts who have not already suffered punishment shall not be held criminally responsible, but shall be relieved from punishment for participation in these insurrections and for unlawful acts committed during the course thereof by a general amnesty and pardon;

"Now, therefore, be it known that I, Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States of America, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the constitution, do hereby proclaim and declare, without reservation or condition, except as hereinafter provided, a full and complete pardon and amnesty to all persons in the Philippine archipelago who have participated in the insurrections aforesaid or who have given aid and comfort to persons participating in said insurrections, for the offenses of treason or sedition, and for all offenses, political in their character committed in the course of such insurrections pursuant to orders issued by the civil or military insurrectionary authorities or which grew out of internal political feuds or dissensions between Filipinos and Spaniards or the Spanish authorities, or which resulted from internal political feuds or dissensions among the Filipinos themselves during either of said insurrections.

SOME ARE EXCEPTED.

"Provided, however, that the pardon and amnesty hereby granted shall not include such persons committing crimes since May 1, 1902, in any province of the archipelago in which at the time civil government was established, nor shall it include such persons as have been heretofore finally convicted of the crimes of murder, rape, arson or robbery by any military or civil tribunal organized under the authority of Spain or of the United States of America, but which special application may be made to the proper authority for pardon by any person belonging to the exempted classes, and such clemency as is consistent with humanity and justice will be liberally extended; and, further,

"Provided, that this amnesty and pardon shall not affect the title or right of the government of the United States or that of the Philippine islands to any property or property rights heretofore used or appropriated by the military or civil authorities of the government of the United States or that of the Philippine islands organized under authority of the United States by way of confiscation or otherwise; and,

OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.

"Provided, further, that every person who shall seek to avail himself of this proclamation shall take and subscribe the following oath before any authority in the Philippine archipelago authorized to administer oaths—namely:

"'I, ——, solemnly swear (or affirm) that I recognize and accept supreme authority of the United States of America in the Philippine islands, and will maintain true faith and allegiance thereto; that I impose upon myself this obligation voluntarily without mental reservation or purpose of evasion, so help me God.'

"Given under my hand at the City of Washington, this fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and two, and in the one hundred and twenty-seventh year of the independence of the United States.

"Theodore Roosevelt.

"By the President.

"Elihu Root, Secretary of War."

CIVIL POWER SUPREME.

General Chaffee is relieved of his civil duties and the Philippine commission is made the superior authority in the following order:

"The insurrection against the sovereign authority of the United States in the Philippine archipelago having ended and provincial civil government having been established throughout the entire territory of the archipelago not inhabited by Moro tribes, under the instructions of the president to the Philippine commission, dated April 7, 1900, now ratified and confirmed by the act of congress approved July 1, 1902, entitled 'An act temporarily to provide for the administration of affairs of civil government in the Philippine islands and for other purposes,' the general commanding the division of the Philippines is hereby relieved from the further performance of the duties of military governor and the office of military governor in said archipelago is terminated.

"The general commanding the division of the Philippines and all military officers in authority therein will continue to observe the directions contained in the aforesaid instructions of the president, that the military forces in the division of the Philippines shall be at all times subject, under the orders of the military commander, to the call of the civil authorities for the maintenance of law and order and the enforcement of their authority."

GENERAL ORDER IS ISSUED.

Finally the president, through Secretary Root, pronounces the following eulogy upon the United States army:

"General Order No. 60.—Headquarters of the Army, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, July 4.—The following has been received from the war department:

"'War Department, Washington, July 4.—To the Army of the United States: The president upon this anniversary of national independence wishes to express to the officers and enlisted men of the United States army his deep appreciation of the service they have rendered to the country in the great and difficult undertakings which they have brought to a successful conclusion during the past year.

"'He thanks the officers and the enlisted men who have been maintaining order and carrying on the military government in Cuba because they have faithfully given effect to the humane purposes of the American people. They have with sincere kindness helped the Cuban people to take all the successive steps necessary to the establishment of their own constitutional government.

THE DAY AT HOME

HOW FORT WAYNE OBSERVED THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

MUCH NOISE USHERED IT IN

RACKET BEGUN AT NIGHT IS STEADILY KEPT UP.

PICNICS WERE RULE HERE

MANY LEFT THE CITY TO CELEBRATE THE DAY.

Patriotic ardor that finds expression in waving flags, enlivening music, cessation from daily toil, general good nature and a continuous detonation of about every form of noise-making explosive known to the small boy are combining to form Fort Wayne's contribution to the general observance of Independence day. Rains, which have been almost a daily feature for some weeks give promise of passing the city by for the time being, and threatening clouds have given way to a blazing sun and a summer heat that brings back recollection of the old-time Fourth of July.

Battery B, under command of Lieutenant Ramsey, boomed forth the city's formal welcome to the holiday at 5:30 o'clock this morning, when it fired a national salute from the site of the old Fort at Main and Clay streets, though the young patriots whose hands and faces are now bathed in sedative oils were ahead of them by several hours. The small boy may have burned fingers and dimmed sight as the result of his enthusiastic but reckless patriotism, but his soul is bathed in a happiness that makes recompense for all his sufferings.

The din began in earnest last evening at nightfall, and down town the early evening hours were marked by a terrific bombardment upon every hand that shattered delicate nerves but filled the soul of the celebraters with joy. There was some cessation as the night grew old and the day grew young, but it did not entirely stop, for the late celebraters were replaced by the early risers, and all night long the noisy demonstration continued.

BANDS OUT EARLY.

Every band in the city had an engagement for the day at the picnics and other gatherings, and they were upon the streets early. The Lake Shore train from the north arrived shortly after 8 o'clock bringing the splendid Auburn band of thirty pieces and eight coaches filled with passengers. The band played several selections at Main and Calhoun streets before its departure to Robison park where it is engaged for the day.

Comparatively few people were about the down town section this morning, for most of them hurried away to participate in some of the attractions of the day. Shops and factories, all the public buildings and most of the business houses were closed for the day, giving employes an opportunity to participate in the celebrations. Early trains in every directions carried many excursionists out of the city, but others brought in compensating crowds that kept the balance perhaps nearly equal.

POLICE STOPPED IT.

Dealers in fireworks report heavy sales, and the noise would seem to bear out their statement that a big bundle of money is being exploded in noise in Fort Wayne today. In addition to the old brands of fire crackers there are the cannon crackers, the torpedoes, the canes which explode persussion caps and numerous other noise-making devices.

One of the most vociferous of the latter is a home-made torpedo, composed of potash and sulphur wrapped together and placed up on the street car tracks. These explode with a frightful report when cars pass over them, and were frequently arranged in such profusion as to keep up a hair-raising bombardment as the cars passed. Nervous passengers were badly frightened. The size of the torpedoes increased, and the practice became a record-breaker as a nuisance last night and this morning. There was such general complaint from passengers that finally Manager A. L. Scott, of the street railway company, asked Superintendent Geraline to stop it. The officers thereupon received orders to prevent this form of celebration, and men on the boats along the line were kept busy keeping the boys, and not always small boys, away from the tracks.

BIG INTERURBAN BUSINESS.

The Southwestern interurban line is doing a tremendous business to day, every car entering and leaving the city being crowded to its utmost. The city street railway system shortened its service on all lines and there has been a tremendous movement of people to Robison park. Cars on this line are running every minute and a half.

Reports from the picnics indicate that all are being very largely attended. There are great crowds at Swinney park, Lakeside grove, Concordia campus, Zion's grove and in the grove on Indiana avenue, as well as that near the Church of the Precious Blood at Fourth and Barthold streets. There are music, games and refreshments, with an appropriate Fourth of July program at each place.

The Robison park management has arranged for a splendid display of fireworks this evening to close its celebration. This afternoon the race program at Centlivre park is certain to draw a very large crowd, and the sport promises to be fine. Much interest also centers about the shoot under the auspices of the East End Gun club, and "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in a tent also comes in for a share of the public favor.

WILL HAVE FINE DISPLAY.

This evening the skies will blaze with pyrotechnics sent up from every part of the city, but more than usually elaborate will be the display arranged by the residents of East Washington street, between Barr and Lafayette streets. A large amount of money has been expended for fireworks, contributed entirely by citizens in the square indicated, and some of the set-pieces will be notable. One of these, "Welcome," is fully ten feet in length, and will be extremely pretty. The "Good-Night" is another magnificent piece of large size. The display will be the finest private display ever given in the city.

TAKES A FORT WAYNE BRIDE

CAPT. HARROD, OF BUFFALO, WEDS MISS JESSIE SCOTT.

Wedding a Surprise to Friends—Groom Formerly Resided in This City.

A very pretty home wedding took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, 725 East Lewis street, when their daughter, Miss Jessie W. Scott became the bride of Captain H. S. Harrod, of Buffalo, N. Y. The guests were relatives and close friends of the bride and groom. Rev. Edgar W. Allen, pastor of the West Jefferson street Church of Christ, performed the ceremony.

The bride looked very pretty in a wedding dress of white Persian lawn over taffeta. Her traveling dress was of tan broadcloth with hat to match. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The rooms were very prettily decorated.

The groom was formerly a resident of this city and was at one time lieutenant of police for the Pennsylvania company under Captain Stoll. Capt. Harrod was sent to Buffalo some time ago to organize a police force and was elevated to the rank of captain. He is in charge of an efficient police force on the Allegheny Valley division of the Pennsylvania. The bride is a most estimable young lady, popular in a large circle of friends.

Capt. and Mrs. Harrod will visit in the city for a few days and will then leave for their home in Buffalo. They will be at home after August 1st at 66 Emerson Place.

MACHINISTS MAY STRIKE.

Chicago, July 4.—"A strike of 700 machinists employed in the Baltimore and Ohio shops will be called unless the company abolishes the piece work system," is the statement made today by Business Agent Roderick, of the railway branch of the International Association of Machinists. Mr. Roderick returned from Garrett, Ind., today and held a short conference with the Baltimore and Ohio officials. The conference adjourned till later without having reached an agreement. The piece work plan has been in operation in the shops at Garrett, but the company's attempt to extend the system to all the shops resulted in a movement by the men to abolish it. The union demands a minimum wage scale of thirty cents an hour.

THE FOURTH'S FIRST VICTIM.

Springfield, Ill., July 4.—Alfred Radcliffe, 10 years old, committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself with a halter in a barn on the farm of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tarwin, near Bath. He became despondent because his father, who lives near Chandlerville, had sent him no money with which to purchase firecrackers.

A TRAIN HELD UP

BANDITS STOP ROCK ISLAND EXPRESS TRAIN.

ONE MAN NOW IN CUSTODY

HE WAS IMPRESSED INTO SERVICE BY ROBBERS.

BATTLE IN AN EXPRESS CAR

SOME LOOT SECURED IN HOLD-UP NEAR JOLIET.

Joliet, Ill., July 4.—As a result of the hold-up on the Rock Island road last night, the Joliet police have in custody Charles Nessler. He climbed over the tender of the engine and told the engineer and fireman that they must stop the train under penalty of death. Nessler, however, is believed to have been the unwilling accomplice of the robbers, as he obeyed their commands at the point of a revolver. In the event of the capture of the thieves he will make a good witness.

The detectives are hot on the trail of the robbers. A special train is waiting at Coal City for a pair of bloodhounds which are to be rushed to the scene of the holdup.

NESSLER'S STORY.

According to Nessler's story only two robbers were concerned, though the detectives think there were more. He is about 22 years old, of frank appearance and intelligence, and claims to be of respectable parents. He says he went to Niles Center recently to visit a cousin. Last night he started home, and having no funds, was beating his way, taking the train at Chicago. At Englewood he climbed on the bumpers back of the tender and had scarcely secured this position when two men also climbed up. They said nothing in particular until Midlothian station was reached. Then one of the men climbed over the end of the tender upon the coal and ordered Nessler to follow. Both men had adjusted black masks to their faces. At the point of a revolver Nessler was told to go forward to the cab and tell the engineer to stop the train half a mile beyond. Thoroughly frightened, he did so. The engineer and fireman regarded the request as a joke and laughed. "Look up there," said Nessler. The trainmen did so and saw two revolvers pointing toward them. "This is no joke," said one robber. "Stop the train or I'll kill you."

The engineer shut off the steam and brought the train to a standstill near the Dupont switch. The engine crew were taken back under guard, Nessler being commanded to remain in the cab and keep quiet.

BATTLE IN EXPRESS CAR.

Demand was made on the express messenger and baggageman to open the door of their car under threats to blow it up with dynamite. The door was opened and the robbers rushed in. A struggle ensued and Messenger Kane was shot in the groin. The robbers attempted to open the through safe, but were unsuccessful. The local safe, however, was forced open. It is not known what amount of money was taken. It is reported that a bag of jewelry and some money were found in the safe, but the railway officials say practically nothing of value was secured. The robbers disappeared.

Kane was taken to Linley Park for treatment and later removed to the Englewood hospital. The police here have a satchel and a quantity of dynamite found in a car near the scene of the robbery. None of the passengers was molested.

ONLY ONE FIRE.

At 11:20 this morning the fire department was called out for the first time. A fire cracker thrown on the roof of Henry Tholen's house, at Jefferson and Calhoun streets, set fire to the shingles, but neighbors extinguished the blaze before the fire department's arrival.

SHIPPED AWAY IN A BOX.

Kalamazoo, Mich., July 4.—Just before the through American Express train from New York to Chicago arrived here last night an 18-year-old boy was found concealed in a dry goods box in the Boston express car. The box was tagged to Cheney, Wash.

The parcel was put off here and the boy was taken to jail. He gave his name as William Edmondson, of Boston. He said that he had a friend ship him from Boston as express. The box contained two loaves of bread and a bottle of water. Edmondson was in excellent spirits when released.

Cuba wisely, regarding justice and respecting individual liberty; have honestly collected and expended for the best interests of the Cuban people the revenues, amounting to over $60,000,000; have carried out practical and thorough sanitary measures, greatly improving the health and lowering the death rate of the island.

"'By patient, scientific research they have associated the causes of yellow fever and by good administration have put an end to that most dreadful disease, which has long destroyed the lives and hindered the commercial prosperity of the Cubans.

COMMENDS DISCIPLINE.

"'They have expedited justice and secured protection for the rights of the innocent, while they have cleansed the prisons and established sound discipline and healthful conditions for the punishment of the guilty. They have re-established and renovated and put upon a substantial basis adequate hospitals and asylums for the care of the unfortunate.

"'They have established a general system of free common schools throughout the island, in which over 200,000 children are in actual attendance. They have constructed great and necessary public works.

"'They have gradually trained the Cubans themselves in all branches of administration, so that the new government upon assuming power has begun its work with an experienced force of Cuban civil service employes competent to execute its orders.

"'They have borne themselves with dignity and self-control, so that nearly four years of military occupation have passed unmarred by injury or insult to man or woman. They have transferred the government of Cuba to the Cuban people amid universal expressions of friendship and good will and have left a record of ordered justice and liberty, of rapid improvement in material and moral conditions and progress in the art of government which reflects great credit upon the people of the United States.

PRESIDENT EXTENDS THANKS.

"'The president thanks the officers and enlisted men of the army in the Philippines, both regulars and volunteers, for the courage and fortitude, the indomitable spirit and loyal devotion with which they have put down and ended the great insurrection which has raged throughout the archipelago against the lawful sovereignty and just authority of the United States.

"'The task was peculiarly difficult and trying. They were required at first to overcome organized resistance of superior numbers, well equipped with modern arms of precision, intrenched in an unknown country of mountain defiles, jungles and swamps, apparently capable of interminable defense. When this resistance had been overcome they were required to crush a general system of guerrilla warfare conducted among a people speaking unknown tongues, from whom it was almost impossible to obtain the information necessary for successful pursuit or to guard against surprise and ambushes.

ENEMIES UNSCRUPULOUS.

"'The enemies by whom they were surrounded were regardless of all obligations of good faith and of all the limitations which humanity has imposed upon civilized warfare.

"'Bound themselves by the laws of war, our soldiers were called upon to meet every device of unscrupulous treachery and to contemplate without reprisal the infliction of barbarous cruelties upon their comrades and friendly natives. They were instructed, while punishing armed resistance, to conciliate the friendship of the peaceful, yet had to do with a population among whom it was impossible to distinguish friend from foe, and who in countless instances used a false appearance of friendship for ambush and assassination.

TRANSPORTATION PROBLEM.

"'They were obliged to deal with problems of communication and transportation in a country without roads and frequently made impassable by torrential rains. They were weakened by tropical heat and tropical disease. Widely scattered over a great archipelago extending 1,000 miles from north to south, the gravest responsibilities, involving the life or death of their commands, frequently devolved upon young and inexperienced officers beyond the reach of specific orders or advice.

"'Under all these adverse circumstances the army of the Philippines has accomplished its task rapidly and completely. In more than 2,000 combats, great and small, within three years, it has exhibited unvarying courage and resolution. Utilizing the lessons of the Indian wars, it has relentlessly followed the guerrilla bands to their fastnesses in mountain and jungle and crushed them. It has put an end to the vast system of intimidation and secret assassination by which the peaceful natives were prevented from taking a genuine part in government under American authority. It has captured or forced to surrender substantially all the leaders of the insurrection. It has submitted to no discouragement and halted at no obstacle.

OFFICERS AND MEN PRAISED.

"'Its officers have shown high qualities of command and its men have shown devotion and discipline. Its splendid, virile energy has been accompanied by self-control, patience and magnanimity. With surprisingly few individual exceptions its course has been characterized by humanity and kindness to the prisoner and the noncombatant.

"'With admirable good temper, sympathy and loyalty to American ideals, its commanding generals have joined with the civilian agents of the government in healing the wounds of war and assuring to the people of the Philippines the blessings of peace and prosperity. Individual liberty, protection of personal rights, civil order, public instruction and religious freedom have followed its footsteps.

"'It has added honor to the flag which it defended and has justified increased confidence in the future of the American people, whose soldiers do not shrink from labor or death, yet love liberty and peace.

"'The president feels that he expresses the sentiments of all the loyal people of the United States in doing honor to the whole army which has joined in the performance and shares in the credit of these honorable services.

"'This general order will be read aloud at parade in every military post on the 4th day of July, 1902, or on the first day after it shall have been received.

"'Elihu Root, Secretary of War.'

"By command of Lieutenant General Miles.

"H. C. Corbin, Adjutant General.

"Major General, United States Army."

WASHINGTON'S CHRISTIANITY.

A Poem Which Should Set at Rest the Recently Awakened Doubts on the Point.

That the religious poem found among a bundle of Washington's letters and manuscripts in 1827 has not been quoted before in the discussion which has been waged for some weeks over his alleged lack of Christianity is rather singular. It is almost enough in itself to confound the claims of those who have asserted that the first president was lacking in a deep feeling of religion, for the spirit of Christianity which it breathes is warm and pure. Such a poem would scarcely be found among the private papers of a man whose belief in the Christian religion was not of the most sincere sort. Its subject was the birth of Christ, and it isn't much of a poem, perhaps, but it is the sentiment which animates it that makes it interesting. As it is reproduced here it is in the exact form in which it was written by Washington, without the slightest change in spelling, capitalization or punctuation:

ON CHRISTMAS DAY.

Assist me Muse Divine to sing the Morn
On which the Saviour of Mankind was born;
But oh! what Numbers to the Theme can rise?
Unles kind Angels aid me from the Skies!
Methinks I see the tuneful Host descend,
And with officious Joy the Scene attend.
Hark, by their Hymns directed on the Road.
The Gladsome Shepers find the Nascent GOD!
And view the Infant conscious of his Birth.
Smiling bespeak Salvation to the Earth!

For when the important Aera first drew near
In which the great Messiah should appear,
And to accomplish his redeeming love,
Resign awhile his glorious Throne above!
Beneath our Flora should every woe sustain.
And by triumphant suffering fix his Reign,
Should for lost Man in Torture's yield his Breath,
Dying to save us from eternal Death!
Oh mystic Union! Salutary Grace!
Incarnate God our Nature should embrace!
That Deity should stoop to our disguise!
That man recov'd should regain the Skies!
Dejected Adam! from thy grave ascend,
And view the Serpent's Deadly Malice end;
Adoring bless the Almighty's boundless Grace
That gave his son a Ransome for thy Race!
Oh never let me Soul this Day forget,
But pay in graitfull praise her Annual Debt.
When Time, and Sin, and Death.

Mr. Sparks, the historian, found this poem in an old chest at Mount Vernon while searching for material to use in his history. This occurred in 1827, and seven years later it was bought with a number of other papers uncovered at the same time, by congress and deposited in the library of the department of state, where it still remains. It is an old book labeled "Forms of Writing," in which Washington copied selected deeds, bonds, drafts, letters, recipes and so forth. The verses follow a form of "Subpoena for Evidences to Prove a Will," and, after a little space given to another poem on a different subject, the next place in the book is assigned to a recipe "To Keep Ink from Freezing or Moulding." At the end of the same book are the famous "Rules of Civility" by which Washington guided his conduct.

It was perhaps the haphazard manner in which the religious verses were set down in the "Forms of Writing" that induced Dr. J. H. Toner to argue at first that it was not written by Washington, but merely copied from some newspaper, periodical or book without credit having been given the author. This is merely a conjecture without proof of any kind to substantiate it, but even if it were so it does not detract very much from the influence of the composition as a document testifying to the religious bent of the general's nature. He would not have taken the trouble to copy it in his own handwriting if he had not been entirely in accord with its sentiment.

SHOEWORKERS ON STRIKE.

Burlington, N. J., July 4.—Four of the seven shoe factories of this place were rendered idle today by a strike of employes which is expected to extend to the remaining three establishments tonight. The seven factories employ more than 1,500 men and women and of this number about 700 are now on strike. Shoemaking is the principal industry of Burlington. The strike is the result of a notice posted in all the factories announcing that when the works reopened next Monday after the holiday cessation none but non-union hands would be employed.

THE IRON HAND.

Mr. Dean has given us a very interesting story in this little book. Aside from the attack upon the great city department store, which is cleverly woven into the narrative, it contains some interesting characters which make the book well worth reading. Nellie Jimmy, in her life of opulence, as well as in her life of poverty, among her trials and temptations, is the principal one and appeals strongly to one's feelings, while Michael Hodley and big Ole in the complications arising from their efforts to assist the heroine produce many a laugh and dramatic effect. No story is quite complete without a child character, and in Little Jack we have one that interests us deeply. The attempt to expose the college society, the fight between Mike and the goat, and the tragedy in which the blind man figures are well written. The book is interesting throughout and very attractively produced. The Iron Hand, by Howard Dean, $1.00. The Abbey Press, New York. W. C. Baade, 116 Calhoun St., Fort Wayne.

LOGANSPORT TRACTION WAR

COUNCIL REVOKES FRANCHISE OF L., R. & N. LINE.

Six Members of Council are Under Surveillance—Serious Time is Looked For.

Logansport, Ind., July 24.—At the meeting of the city council the Logansport, Rochester and Northern Traction company's franchise was revoked and the company ordered to remove its tracks from the streets. This order was not obeyed and the cars are still running and business is good. Some time ago the court rendered a decision that the company's franchise was good. Detectives are keeping tab on the six members of the council who make this stand and armed men are patrolling the lines of the Logansport, Rochester and Northern company at night to prevent any interference during the hours of darkness. The majority of the council favors the line of the Boyd syndicate, in operation before the former people built a local line here. Something exciting is being looked for at any time.

The Logansport, Rochester and Northern Traction company made another move late last night which places a new phase on the situation. The company filed condemnation proceedings against the landowners from the eastern limits of the city east to Spencer park. Appraisers will now be appointed, the value fixed, the price paid into court and work of construction can begin.

Then this company will have a parallel line to the only big park and will begin to compete with the Boyd syndicate, which owns the other line. The outlook is threatening and there is no telling what may result.

WILL NOT TRY BISHOP TALBOTT

Harrisburg, Pa., July 4.—The board of inquiry of the Episcopal church to inquire into the charges against Bishop Talbott, of the Central Pennsylvania diocese, decided by a vote of five to four today that the testimony was not sufficient to justify the bishop being referred to the house of bishops for trial. The charges of conduct unbecoming a bishop were preferred by Rev. Irvine, of Philadelphia, who was unfrocked by Bishop Talbott while serving as rector of St. John's parish, Huntingdon, Pa., for alleged scandalous conduct.

The Evening Sentinel.

BY E. A. K. HACKETT.

FRIDAY, JULY 4, 1902.

One hundred and twenty-six years ago this day there was not quite so much certainty as to what the noise meant.

It may not be amiss here to remark that the way to stop gambling is to stop it; the way to close saloons at illegal hours is to close them; the way to rid the town of female divs is to swipe them out, and the way to have orders respected is to enforce them relentlessly.

The news that work has been suspended on the South Wayne sewer because excessive rains have flooded it will not disturb anybody greatly. The fact of the thing is there never has been a time since it was begun that something was not the matter with the South Wayne sewer. It promises to be finished at least as soon as the Panama canal is completed.

The disclosures of the corruption that has had existence in the Minneapolis police department are rather startling. They induce much lively speculation as to the number of other large cities in the country where the crime system of "graft" and co-operation with thieves, thugs, confidence men and swindlers have existence. In Minneapolis the entire executive branch of the city government, from the mayor down, appears to have had some guilty connection with the business.

The returns tomorrow and for a few days thereafter will doubtless show that an increasing number of Young Americans have immolated themselves on the altar of patriotism and that many more have contributed eyes, fingers and other members to the glorious cause of American independence. From time to time in various cities efforts are made to reduce the number of casualties by attaching a penalty to the use of various dangerous firearms and forms of explosives. Not much success has ever attended such efforts. Youthful exuberance rises superior both to considerations of bodily safety and fear of the law and the thing that makes most noise stands in highest favor.

One of the most impressive of the shortcomings of the late session of congress was the absolute failure to attempt anything to restrain the rapacity of the trusts. It is true the administration has made some advance against corporate aggrandizement in the suit against the railway merger and in the suit against the beef trust. But those measures are promising only of doubtful results at most. Just what some of the republicans expect to see accomplished is problematical. It has been frequently asserted that the Sherman anti-trust law under which these suits were begun was inadequate to control trusts and that under the constitution no better measure was possible. In view of the rapidity with which trusts have multiplied in the last half dozen years and the extent and flagrancy of their extortions it would seem that some attempt to reach them by new legislation was the thing to do. Not a thing was done to hit them through tariff reductions, though the last public utterance of the lamented McKinley, high priest though he was of the propaganda of protection, was a proclamation that the future policy of his party must and would be tariff reduction and trade reciprocity. McKinley urged this, whereas congress refused to grant tariff concession to Cuba to tide her over the struggle of her earlier national existence. The republicans will not find it easy to explain to the country that it was right or beneficent to continue the tariff duties which make the rapacity of the trusts possible.

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE.

When there is no longer a Fourth of July sharply distinct from each of the other three hundred and sixty-four days of the year there will no longer be a United States of America. The day and the nation are in a sense identical. The Fourth of July is a strenuous symbolism that embodies the sentiment and tradition that have come down to us fully preserved from sources a century and a quarter remote.

Now and then is heard the plaint of pessimistic patriotism that the Fourth of July is "not what it used to be"; that the day as an institution has fallen into decadence. And this is pointed to as a sign that patriotism is waning and the well-springs of national spirit drying up. Let those who believe so find comfort in their grumbling. The Fourth of July is not going out of fashion; the fashion of it has merely changed somewhat. The old-fashioned manner of celebration is a good deal out of date, but there is a reason for it. The country-town celebration is not so common as formerly. The people can get away. Cheap and rapid transportation have made a different kind of holiday possible and the people in large part prefer to go to the larger towns and cities to enjoy the parks and resorts usually nearby. There is a change from the monotony of familiar things at home and they are eager to enjoy it. The journey abroad to find enjoyment is quite as much a tribute to the significance of the day as staying at home to burn powder and shoot rockets in the front yard.

We do not have quite so much of the eagle-screaming, British lion's tail-twisting oratory as formerly, but there is a reason for that, too. Uncle Sam has grown to importance that makes it unnecessary for him to blow his own horn to attract attention. He is now easily seen, always heard and that with immense respect. We have grown too big to boast and great enough to be magnanimous.

Let there be no misgivings. The American school history will always teach that Washington was an American and George III. a Briton; that notwithstanding an untoward turn of affairs at Bunker Hill we still have the hill; that we finally did "lick the British all they wanted," and did it again in 1812 to show the first licking wasn't a scratch victory or fluke. It will teach Young America what the fathers did in Philadelphia this day, 1776, and what was done after the war was over and we were free. It will show how the young nation grew and expanded in territory and waxed in wealth and power until it became the mightiest of earth. But no concealment will ever be possible that it was the mother country we fought and over whom we triumphed. So long as American history teaches American youth these things the Fourth of July will not grow decadent and the youth of the land and their elders as well will not cease to observe the day—

"That gave us—
Hurray! Hurray! Hurray!
(With some hot fighting, our fathers would say)
Our glorious independence."

TWO KILLED AND MORE HURT

THRILLING STORY OF TRACY'S COMMAND OF LAUNCH.

Seattle, Wash., July 4.—Tracy, the escaped Oregon convict, in a battle with a Seattle posse near Bothell last evening, shot and instantly killed Charles Raymond, a deputy sheriff from Everett who joined the pursuers, and dangerously wounded Deputy Sheriff John Williams, of this city. Carl Anderson, a newspaper man, was slightly grazed on the arm. Louis Seefrit, another reporter, was wounded in the face.

So intense is the excitement over the killing of Raymond and the wounding of Williams that an effort is being made to have Governor McBride call out the state militia. Tracy was last seen near Bothell and was headed for Seattle in a wagon. A special train carrying more than twenty-five armed men with Winchesters left for the scene.

The first posse was composed of Deputy Sheriffs Williams, Nelson, McGee, Bernier and Snyder. Tracy was seen taking the track of the Seattle and International railroad at about 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning by Jack Freeman, night watchman at the State university. He at once notified the sheriff's office and the pursuit began. The posse of deputy sheriffs was soon joined by a number of citizens. According to the late reports Tracy was concealed in a cabin on the banks of the Squak slough, two miles from Bothell. When the posse came in sight Tracy began firing. Williams and Raymond were both hit. Tracy then retreated and concealed himself in the cabin. Anderson claims to have fired three times at Tracy, but does not know whether he hit him.

Sheriff Cudihee was at Issaquah when word of the battle was first received, and immediately left for Bothell. Winchesters have been provided by a local hardware store, and the hunt for Tracy was taken up in earnest.

Late yesterday afternoon Tracy stole a horse and buggy and drove several miles. He abandoned it near Seattle and came in contact with a local posse at Fremont, within the city limits. In the encounter which followed he killed Policeman F. E. Dreese and fatally wounded a man named Biler.

DAY ON THE SOUND.

Seattle, Wash., July 4.—Captain Clark, of the steam launch H. and F., yesterday gave a thrilling account of the trip of himself and crew up the sound Wednesday in company with Harry Tracy, the escaped Oregon convict, who, at the muzzle of a rifle, forced all hands to embark and pilot him northward. For nearly ten hours Tracy was commander of the craft by virtue of force, finally abandoning it and escaping into the woods.

"We were in the company of Tracy from 9 o'clock in the morning until 6:30 in the evening yesterday," said Capt. Clark, who continued: "We had been working at South Point carrying oysters from one bed to another. I entered the company's house at 9:30 in the morning and found a man with a gun there beckoning me to the door leading to the stairs. I supposed the boys were playing some prank, and paid no further attention to him, or to the other men, but proceeded to eat breakfast. The rest of the men seemed unusually quiet, but even that did not arouse my suspicions. As the other men had all been apprised of the conditions, they were somewhat uncommunicative. When through breakfast I reached my hand into my pocket, and then, for the first time, the stranger spoke. 'Take your hands out of your pockets, captain,' said he. 'You have a gun there. It is no use for you to draw it.'

"'Who are you?' I demanded.

"'Tracy,' he replied.

"After ordering the cook to put him up a lunch he ordered four of us to tie the other two men of the party and then proceed to the launch. Arriving at the launch he helped us to get under way, all the time keeping his hands on his rifle.

"We set sail about 10 o'clock and it was his first desire to land on the beach near Tacoma, as he said he wanted to go as close as he could to McNeill island in order to take a shot at the guards there. All day he displayed the most daring recklessness regarding the taking of human life, and all day he exercised the most exacting vigilance to prevent us getting the drop on him in any manner or even from discussing the matter among ourselves for the purpose of forming a plan for simultaneous action. We were all unarmed.

"On just one occasion during the day did there seem to be for a single moment an opportunity to take him at a disadvantage. That was when, off McNeill's island, when he leaned over the side of the launch to take a shot at the seals. That was the only time during the day he actually shot his rifle, though he was constantly pointing it at men and objects. The seal was some 200 yards from the boat, and, in a spirit of bravada, he raised his rifle and fired at it.

"As he was firing the chance for which I had been watching seemed to present itself and I made a move towards him, thinking to push him off the barge while his back was turned. As I did so he raised up slightly as though he had abandoned the idea of shooting, and in order to elude any suspicion of my suspicions I turned my face away, as though to look after the boat. He fired, and before I could return my attention to him he had turned around and reloaded his rifle."

MAN BLOWN UP IN A BOMB IS AN AERONAUT.

Louisville Victim Has a Shop on Long Island Where He Has Made an Airship.

Louisville, Ky., July 4.—The Post says:

"The young aeronaut who was probably fatally injured in an attempt to descend in a parachute from a bomb fired in the air at a performance of the 'Last Days of Pompeii' last night, is said to be Leo Stevens of New York, an inventor who was entered in the St. Louis exposition airship tests in competition with Santos Dumont.

"He is said to have a shop on Long Island, where he has been experimenting with aerial navigation, and has so far succeeded that he had secured a patent on an airship and was going to do battle with Santos Dumont in the coming contest at St Louis.

"When he was carried to the city hospital, he gave his name as Dull, though his employers stated that they did not know his real name.

"The attending physicians say that the chances are against his recovery."

HERBERT IS CAPTURED.

Washington, Ind., July 4.—Joe Herbert, the murderer, is again behind the bars of the Daviess county jail, and this time he is confined in a carefully guarded cell. He was captured at the home of his father-in-law in this city. A patient watch was kept at that place, and soon the murderer's well known figure was seen to stalk through the darkness and enter the home. A few recruits were hastily summoned and a real battle prepared for. Men were posted in each avenue of retreat and the murderer's departure was awaited. Two of the most resolute watchers were hidden at a rear gate, and when Herbert approached it in the darkness he was allowed to get within six feet of the men, when both arose and covered him with revolvers. Seeing the hopelessness of escape and being without arms, Herbert surrendered and was soon in jail. Herbert has raved as a maniac since his return to prison. His mind is tortured by the excessive excitement for the past twenty-four hours. Edson is still at large, as are the two other prisoners who escaped with him and Herbert. Several reports of the arrest of persons answering Edson's description have reached the Washington authorities, but there has been no confirmation. Herbert's trial will be continued until the next term of court, when a new jury will be impaneled, the old one having been disbanded.

OLD LOVE FLAME AGAIN.

Dublin, Ind., July 4.—The life of Augusta McKee has been one of many matrimonial complications. Within twenty years she has been married four times, but has had only two different husbands. She married her first and second husbands twice each. Mrs. McKee was the daughter of John H. McKee, a wealthy farmer of Rush county. Her first choice was Thomas B. Scott. After eight years of married life with him she was divorced and soon married John D. Whitton. She secured a divorce from Whitton after two years. Scott in the meantime had married another wife, from whom he was divorced in a year. Augusta again married Scott and in two years they were again divorced. All this time Whitton had remained faithful to her and now he has taken her under his care for a second time. In each divorce her complaint was cruel treatment.

ANCIENT TORTURE

How it has Been Revived in Modern Times.

An ancient method of poisoning criminals was to force them to swallow large quantities of bull's blood. Bull's blood is really no poison at all. Yet the prisoner usually died in agony. This was caused by the coagulation or hardening of the bull's blood in the stomach. The pressure of this solid mass on the heart, lungs and other vital organs almost always resulted fatally.

That's just like indigestion. If your food doesn't digest it remains in a hard lump in the stomach. Gases are formed, which crowd and sometimes actually displace other organs. Many cases of supposed heart disease are due to indigestion. The pressure upon the lungs interferes with breathing. A disordered stomach effects the whole body.

By the use of such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure all this trouble is removed. Before food can be assimilated into the system it must be reduced to proper condition by the digestive fluids. If any of these fluids are lacking, perfect digestion is impossible. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the missing fluids. Stomach troubles can't be cured by dieting. The system demands both a sufficiency and a variety of food. You can't get well or stay well without it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach to take care of any kind of good food. It renders dieting unnecessary. It digests what you eat. In this way it rests the stomach. This rest soon restores the stomach to perfect health.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure helps the children too. Weak and sickly little ones thrive on it. It never fails.

"During the last few years my stomach was in such condition that I couldn't retain the food I ate," writes Henry Williams of Boonville, Mo. "Two months ago I commenced taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. A few bottles have cured me entirely. I can now eat and enjoy anything I want."

POLICE GOT SHARE OF SWAG

SOME HISTORY OF MINNEAPOLIS POLICE.

Were in With Pickpockets During the National Convention in 1892—Fort Wayne Man Touched.

The unearthing of the stupendous police scandals in Minneapolis within the last few days calls to mind the experiences of some Fort Wayne gentlemen at Minneapolis in 1892, when the republican national convention was held there. The writer has no personal recollection as to whether Ames, the latest chief of police, was in authority then or not, but whoever he was, he was a "peach." The thieving privilege was farmed out on that occasion just the same as peanut privileges are at county fairs, and the police department, of course, was in with it. "Doc" Barnett, one of the most widely known crooks in the country, was fortunate enough to get control of the pocketbook or "dip" privilege and he handled it to perfection. The only stipulation was that there should be no slugging and probably no murder unless it was actually necessary. Barnett pledged himself as a man of honor that no violence should be used in relieving guileless citizens of their wealth. "If a man can't be a gentleman he can't work for me," said the affable Mr. Barnett, and from his point of view he was probably right. Another line that Barnett laid down and which he always followed was that "professional" men were to be let alone. By "professional" men was meant professional gamblers. And so it happened that a gambler could get so drunk that he couldn't distinguish Mary from John, might fall asleep standing up and all that and yet his diamonds and purse would be as free from molestation as though locked up in a deposit vault. Barnett had a smooth gang of crooks with him and each night the spoils were divided at the West house, where Barnett had a room—in fact, a suite of them. He never "worked" himself and would have passed as a millionaire or a politician, but he got all the swag every night and at the end of a "job" like the week at Minneapolis he paid off his men, divided with the police officers and pulled his freight for the next place. At Minneapolis several Fort Wayne gentlemen were touched up for money and diamonds. Among the losers of diamonds was Harry Latham, at that time a professional gambler from this city. He lost a diamond worth about $250 and he doubtless would have got it back before leaving Minneapolis had he "squealed" while he was up there. He was too sensitive, however, to let anybody know that he had been held up, and kept the matter to himself until some time after he got back home. He was then told that he had made a monkey of himself. He was given a pointer by a local friend, and being personally acquainted with Barnett, he wrote him about the matter and minutely described his stone. In less than ten days he had his diamond returned to him. Latham and Barnett are both dead, the latter dying about a year or so ago. He was a wonderful character and made this city his headquarters one winter and was a frequent visitor here for years. He never "worked" here, however. He made it a rule never to do anything in a town in which he was living or where he made his headquarters and he never made a mistake in sizing up a man with whom he wanted to do business. He always first thoroughly informed himself of the character of his man and learned his weak points, and then he went right at him like a salesman. He would go right up to a chief of police, tell him that he was going to bring a dozen or so pickpockets to town, promise that nobody should be robbed who could not afford to stand the loss and promised to return all valuable papers, and ask the chief how much he wanted for his bit. His argument was that suckers were born to be robbed, anyway, and that if he didn't get their money somebody else would, and that it was better policy to have the robbing done by genteel and respectable thieves than by an irresponsible knave, who was probably only working for a reputation. Barnett always protected his men and a man who got in trouble while working for him had no difficulty in giving bond in any sum and his legal battles were always fought to a finish. It is estimated that the earnings of his gang at Minneapolis were over $100,000, of which sum $25,000 is supposed to have got into the police department.

COUNCIL SPECIAL COMMITTEE HOLDS MEETING.

More Time Will be Taken—Franchise Proposition Before Board—City Hall News.

The council committee appointed some time since to investigate the proposition of the Jenney Electric Light and Power company for the sale of its plant met last evening and listened to the reading of a number of letters from cities which own their own lighting plants. Mr. Sordalet, secretary of the committee, has received a great many letters which throw light upon the whole municipal ownership proposition. They are various in tone and as more of them are awaited, the committee will defer making a report until it has had ample time for a more thorough investigation.

NEGOTIATIONS TO BEGIN.

Washington, July 4.—The negotiations for the treaty between the United States and Columbia by which we will acquire the right to build the Panama canal will begin in about one week, Minister Concha, of Colombia, having conferred with Secretary Hay on the preliminaries of the negotiations. Mr. Hay will be out of the city for the next few days and on his return the negotiations will begin. Minister Concha has been fully clothed with authority to proceed with the treaty. The main features of the treaty are pretty well settled, as the protocol signed some time ago was quite full in setting forth the prospective arrangement in case congress acted favorably on the Panama route. The amount to be paid Colombia for a relinquishment of exclusive rights to the United States will be $7,000,000 in gold, payable on the exchange of ratifications of the treaty, and in addition Colombia is to receive an annuity at the end of fourteen years, to be determined by mutual agreement at that time.

M. J. Carroll and Miss Nellie Carroll, of Bucyrus, Ohio, are spending the Fourth with their mother, on Thomas street. Mr. Carroll is a prominent manufacturer of Bucyrus and his sister is his private secretary.

BASE BALL

This is the day of all days when the base ball player is expected to earn his salary for the balance of the season. There used to be a time when clubs in minor leagues had very troublous times in trying to hold together until "the Fourth." If it didn't rain and a good crowd turned out and the home club won, it was a pretty safe proposition that base ball would last another month or so anyway. It's different now, but still this national holiday is regarded as the best base ball day of the season and professional clubs that break even on the balance of the season have a pretty good thing if they can count their receipts for this day only as their profit on the season. Yesterday was light on base ball, most of the clubs laying up for the two games to be played all over today. In the National league there was ball in only one city, Chicago, where St. Louis walked Chicago's log in two clean, well played and close games. In the American league two games were played, and in the American association no games were scheduled and none were played. The results will be found below:

ARSENAL AT POLICE STATION

MANY OUTLAWED WEAPONS ARE CONFISCATED.

Mayor's Order Was Extensively Enforced Last Night—News of the Police.

Superintendent Gorsline's desk looked like the bargain counter of a gun shop this morning, the display being the fruits of the mayor's order to confine the Independence day celebration within limits the least dangerous to life and limb. There were a good many violations of the injunction against revolvers and cannons and the police captured about a score of these warlike implements and confiscated them. With the exception of these catches and some slight disorders in the crowds on the streets last night's celebration was a very orderly one. There was but one arrest, Detective Colling having the only prisoner at police court. He was George Brown, who was on his way from Ohio to Mentone to visit his uncle. He stopped off here to prime himself for a proper display of enthusiasm in meeting his avuncular relative and overdid the job. He promised to get started toward Mentone within fifteen minutes if released, and Judge Dreibelbiss let him off.

John Ryan, a West Main street saloonkeeper, reports that someone threw a beer bottle through his sign. The gravest complaint on the register is that of Albert Gunzenheiser, a Fairfield avenue saloonkeeper, whose place was almost wrecked by a cannon firecracker which passing roysterers threw in at the door. A big hole was torn in the floor and the furniture and walls were damaged by the explosion.

ON GUARD DUTY

Superintendent Gorsline has assigned most of the night men to duty at the different picnics and other gatherings today. Officers Trebus and Reichardt were sent to the Concordia college grounds, Heller and Strodel to Swinney park, Borgman to the High Banks, and White, Murphy, McKendry and Lavanway to the Driving park. The other officers who are members of churches or societies having picnics were asked to attend these places and preserve order.

POLICE NEWS.

John Schmitt reports that his bicycle was stolen from in front of the Union house.

The authorities have been asked to look for Bernard J. Ornan, a wholesale jeweler of Providence, R. I., who is mysteriously missing.

A SACRIFICIAL DAY

MUCH IS LAID ON THE ALTAR OF PATRIOTISM.

USUAL ACCIDENT CHAPTER

MANY FOURTH OF JULY CASUALTIES REPORTED.

FORTUNATELY NONE FATAL

FIRE AND POWDER DO WORK QUITE TRADITIONALLY.

About the usual number of unfortunate individuals suffered personal injury in Fort Wayne today in contributing to the patriotic jollification with firecrackers, cannon, torpedoes and other noise-making devices, though up to noon today none of those reported are of a fatal character. The mishaps consist for the most part of burned hands and faces, though in one or two instances there is a possibility that eyesight may be destroyed. Many physicians were kept busy during the morning hours attending the unfortunates, and the work is not likely to cease until the last firecracker has been exploded tonight.

TORE HOLE IN HIS HAND.

Charles Druhot, the fourteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Druhot, of 28 Force street, had a hole torn in the palm of his left hand at 7 o'clock last evening by the premature discharge of a pistol in which he was firing blank cartridges. A hole about an inch in diameter was torn in the flesh, separating the tendons from the bones and laying the latter open to view. It is believed the member can be saved. Dr. John Harrod was the attending surgeon.

HELD CRACKER TOO LONG.

Otto Barnett, the little son of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Barnett, was inaugurating the day this morning by firing crackers, but he forgot to drop one quick enough. It exploded in his hand, burning the right side of his face and the palm of his right hand quite severely.

SHOT THROUGH WINDOW.

Some reckless celebrator who has not yet been identified, fired a bullet through one of the handsome curved glass windows of the Wolfs' clothing store this morning. The job of replacing the glass will be an expensive one.

TRIED A NEW PLAN.

Fred Kummer, a young man residing at 423 Wallace street, tried something unique in the celebrating line this morning. Mr. Kummer is a mute, but he is just as patriotic as his more fortunate fellows, and he was firing a small cannon in honor of the day. The load was not discharged, and to help it along Mr. Kummer stooped and fired a revolver point blank at the fuse hole of the cannon. The cannon's load was discharged, throwing the piece in the air as it let go, and Kummer was painfully burned about the hand, the back of the hand being literally sprinkled with powder.

HAND BADLY BURNED.

Herbert Gaskill, a boy living at 731 Lafayette street, had his right hand badly burned in operating a toy cannon this morning. Dr. C. B. Stemen, who attended, does not anticipate dangerous results unless complications ensue.

WAS A LITTLE LATE.

Ralph Harris, a Baltes avenue boy, stopped to punish his little brother when he should have been doing something else, and as a result his badly burned eyes and face. He had a small cannon and his younger brother stuck a lighted fire cracker of goodly proportions in the muzzle. Ralph occupied a moment in cuffing the little fellow's ears, and then started to take the cracker out of the miniature field piece. The fuse got in its work while the cuffing was going on, and the cracker did business when Ralph took hold of it. Dr. Lomas says the boy will not lose the sight of his eyes.

CAUSED A RUNAWAY.

A horse attached to a light buggy which was left standing on East Berry street this morning objected to the explosion of a cannon fire cracker at his heels and left the neighborhood on a gallop. He ran east on Berry street to Barr, turned north to Main and ran east to a point opposite the Central engine house, where he was caught by firemen and held until the owner arrived. The latter's name could not be learned.

LACERATED HIS FINGERS.

A little son of Adolph Schulte was holding a cannon cracker in his hand last evening when it exploded prematurely, lacerating all the fingers of the right hand in a most painful manner. A year ago the same lad suffered a painful injury to one of his feet in a similar manner.

TOY PISTOL EXPLODED.

A lad named Service, living on Force street, held his left hand over the muzzle of the revolver and accidentally pulled the trigger. The wad lodged between the bones of the hand and caused a painful wound, which was dressed by Dr. John Harrod. The 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grindle suffered a similar accident to his right hand. Dr. H. V. Sweringen dressed the injury.

EXPLOSION IN SALOON.

Somebody threw a lighted cannon cracker in the saloon of Albert Gunsenhauzer, at Fairfield avenue and Hendricks street, last evening. It exploded, tearing a huge hole in the floor and shattered a large quantity of window glass.

FOOT TORN BY TORPEDO.

Nick Sarrenty, proprietor of the Boston candy kitchen, on Calhoun street, was walking along the street about 11:30 last evening, when someone exploded a torpedo on his foot. The member was badly torn and an artery was severed, causing considerable loss of blood. Dr. M. F. Schick dressed the injury.

LOOKED INTO A CANNON.

John Douglass, living on Howell street, was firing off a toy cannon last evening, and when one of the charges failed to explode John gazed into the muzzle to find out the reason why. The cannon went off. John's face was filled with powder and his left eye was so seriously injured that he may lose the sight. Dr. Calvin picked out the powder grains and believes he can save the eye.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

In a few weeks the Pwllheli (Wales) harbor of refuge works will be commenced at Pwllheli. It is to cost $262,500, subscribed by the treasury, the Cambrian Railway company and the Cardiff corporation.

There is a revival of interest in old-fashioned cameo jewelry this year. One of the large manufacturing jewelry houses in New York says that it has done more work altering and restoring old cameo jewelry than it has for twenty years.

A physician mentions the case of a man who could be made to dream of any subject by whispering about it into his ear while he slept, and it is a familiar fact that persons who talk in their sleep will frequently answer questions if spoken to softly.

JOHNNY'S SUGGESTION.

"Yes, Johnny, the Cuban Fourth of July will come on the 20th of May from now on."

"Mama, wouldn't it be nice if we could go live in Cuba until about the 1st of June and then come home long enough to have our own Fourth of July, and then go back soon enough to catch their Christmas, and then come home again!"

MR. PECK'S JO YOUS FOURTH.

Mrs. Peck—Henry, dear, show those little boys how to fire those giant crackers.

Henry—Now, boys, you just light your cracker, carefully throw away the match, and you

Uric Acid Makes Rheumatic Pains Without Regard to Station.

It is very democratic—Rheumatism is no respector of persons. It attacks old and young, rich and poor.

Uric acid in the blood causes all of the trouble, and until it is removed Rheumatic pains will continue. As it continues and increases more or less disability will follow. We can remove the Uric acid with Athlophoros, and can tell you how to keep your system free from it after you are cured.

Immediate improvement will be seen with Athlophoros. It goes directly to the seat of the trouble and dissipates the cause. You will note better circulation, greater appetite, freer bowels and a generally better feeling.

Uric acid is responsible for more physical disorders and creates more complications than most people think.

You will find that your general health will be better if you can once get it out of your system. Athlophoros will do it, and one bottle will show marked improvement. It won't cost much to prove it, and we know you will be benefited. If your druggist doesn't sell it send $1 to The Athlophoros Co., New Haven, Conn.

DIED AT SAGINAW

FRANK GIBSON, JR., VICTIM OF RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

FATHER WAS PENNSYLVANIA YARDMASTER.

PENNSYLVANIA IMPROVEMENT

OVER $100,000,000 WILL BE SPENT IN THREE YEARS.

Frank Gibson, of Wallace street, received a telegram from Saginaw this morning, informing him of the death of his nephew, Frank Gibson, jr. The deceased met death in a railway accident, but the particulars were not given in the brief telegram. The deceased was a son of Daniel Gibson and a conductor on the Flint and Pere Marquette road, with headquarters in Saginaw. He was about forty-two years old and a widower, his wife having died several years ago. His parents formerly resided here and his father was yardmaster of the Pennsylvania four years, before the east yards were established. The family moved to Saginaw about twenty-two years ago and Frank soon afterwards took a position on the Marquette road and worked there up to the time of his death. The older men in the Pennsylvania service remember the father of the deceased and hundreds of others will recall memories of Frank, with whom they went to school. The funeral takes place tomorrow at Saginaw and Mr. Gibson will leave this afternoon for that city. Yesterday was the birthday of Mrs. Gibson, who is visiting in Chicago, and Mr. Gibson had arranged to go to that city today. Instead he has a sadder mission to perform, which comes to him as a great shock, for the deceased was a favorite nephew.

PENNSYLVANIA IMPROVEMENT

President A. J. Cassatt expects greater progress in the next twenty-five years in the line of railway improvements than were made in the last quarter of a century, writes William E. Curtis to the Chicago Record-Herald, and he is preparing for improvements for the coming two or three years that will cost about $100,000,000. The entire road between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, on the Atlantic seaboard, and Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati, on the great lakes and rivers of the west, is being practically rebuilt, with four tracks from New York to Pittsburg, double tracks on the western system, and between Philadelphia and Washington grades are being reduced everywhere, curves straightened, new and permanent bridges erected, new rails weighing 100 and even 120 pounds to the foot are being laid, stone ballasting is being laid everywhere, and other improvements made for the promotion of economy and speed. Mr. Cassatt's idea is that speed saves fuel and repairs and it was this belief that led him to reduce the speed of a New York-Chicago fast train to twenty hours. Within a year or two this will be reduced to eighteen and perhaps to sixteen hours. The latter will require a steady gait of a mile a minute—that is, 986 miles in 986 minutes, which at present is beyond the speed of any long distance train in the world, although both the Reading and the Pennsylvania companies run short distance trains between Philadelphia and Atlantic City at an even higher rate, reaching 60.6 miles an hour regularly every day for the entire distance.

When the Pennsylvania Railroad completes its proposed improvements any rate of speed that it is possible for a locomotive to maintain will be safe upon its tracks, because the iron will be very heavy, the ballasting will be perfect, all grade crossings will be eliminated and the bridges will be so solid that they can endure any amount of vibration. It is expected, too, that the development in motive power will keep pace with the improvement in track building. Only a few years ago the maximum load for a car was 40,000 pounds, now it is 100,000 pounds. Already the 70,000-pound locomotives have been replaced with 120,000-pounders, capable of making ninety miles an hour with an ordinary train of five cars behind them. The rate of speed developed by electric motors is considerably greater, although science has not yet advanced to a stage where positive assertions can be made on this subject. In the suburbs of Berlin a line of track has been laid for testing electric locomotives under the most favorable conditions, and although the tests are private and the results are supposed to be secret, it is known that a maximum of 133 miles an hour has been reached. Some people question, however, whether human beings can be carried in wheeled vehicles through space at that rate of speed, but the German experts claim that there is no difficulty or danger provided the conditions are what they should be

The Pennsylvania railroad officials are not prepared to state what speed they expect to attain, but content themselves with promising to keep abreast of the world's advancement in all lines of transportation and mechanics. Between New York and Washington several thousand men are now at work straightening and shortening and elevating the tracks, reducing the grades and laying heavier rails. When the scheme is complete there will be no grade crossings in any of the cities or towns of importance between New York and Washington. The tracks are not elevated on trestles, but upon solid embankments of earth, sustained by heavy stone walls, and the track will be laid in ballast of broken stone. There will thus be entirely new roadbed for almost the entire distance, and probably the most expensive in the world. The elevation of the tracks makes new stations necessary in nearly all the towns south of Jersey City.

At Philadelphia almost the entire system of terminals is being reconstructed, including two new bridges over the Schuylkill, several tunnels and a new double-decked station at the corner of Market and Thirty-fourth streets, so that through trains between New York and the south and west will not be required to back into Broad street station, as at present.

At Camden similar improvements are going on for the benefit of the New Jersey and seashore travel. When they are completed all trains will enter Camden upon elevated tracks.

At Wilmington and Chester the road is being entirely rebuilt. Hereafter trains will pass through Chester on an elevated track that will cost not less than $3,000,000, and in Wilmington a new belt line is being built around the city through the factory district for the use of freight trains. No freight will be carried on the passenger tracks, which will be shortened and elevated through the entire city.

The Pennsylvania company proposes to spend $8,000,000 in Washington erecting the finest railway station in the world, of white marble and of architecture corresponding to that of the capitol.

The company has already spent $5,000,000 in Pittsburg and will spend as much more before the new freight terminals are completed. West of Pittsburg all the tracks are being straightened and doubled, grades reduced and bridges rebuilt of steel and stone. There is already a double track on the Fort Wayne road from Pittsburg to Crestline, and it will be completed to Chicago before the end of the year. This will not only shorten the running time, but increase the facilities for handling freight.

Corresponding improvements are contemplated at Chicago, but the plans have not been announced and the details are not yet decided upon. It is known, however, that a new union station will be erected on Canal street, more than three times as large as the present one, and with this in view the company has been buying land in the neighborhood for several years. Additional freight facilities will also be provided and the Chicago terminals will be made equal to those of any city in the world.

OVERCOME BY HEAT.

Charles H. Platt, an engineer on the Pittsburg road, was overcome by heat last evening as he was bringing his engine down to the round house from the east yards. He managed to remain at the throttle until the coal docks was reached, when he called the fireman to relieve him. Mr. Platt was taken to his home, where he was very ill for awhile, but he is much better today and will be able to resume his work in a day or two.

WILL SET UP ICE MACHINERY.

Herman Regel, a construction man, who has just completed the work of installing a compressor at the city pumping station, will leave tomorrow for Kansas City, where he will superintend the installation of ice machinery in the big plant of the Ferd. Heim Brewing company. Mr. Regel is employed in similar work all the time and some of the greatest steam plants in the country, including the massive affairs at Fall River, Mass., were set up by him.

FRANK ARCHER HURT.

A telegram from Chicago this morning stated that Frank Archer, a Pennsylvania freight engineer, was injured while getting on engine 361 in that city at a early hour this morning. As the accident happened on the Chicago Terminal division no detailed account of it was rendered here. Mr. Archer is coming home on a passenger train, and the fact that he is able to make the trip is taken as evidence that his injuries are not severe. His fireman, J. W. Schnauffer, will come home on a passenger train, also.

KILPATRICK GETS OFFICE.

James Kilpatrick has been appointed mail transfer agent for the Wabash and assumed the duties of the office yesterday. It could have fallen to no better or more worthy person. Mr. Kilpatrick was in the employ of the Wabash several years, first as a clerk in the freight agent's office and later as foreman of the warehouse. He quit several months ago on account of failing health and took a position with an insurance agency, where he could be outdoors much of the time. He is in good health now and will give good service in the position he has assumed.

TRAVEL IS VERY HEAVY.

Every incoming and outgoing train on every road leading to Fort Wayne was filled with passengers yesterday and today and some of the trains, including No. 7 on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, were run in two sections. The agents at the various depots report the largest Fourth of July business within their recollection. A better time limit was made this year than last, tickets sold yesterday and today being good returning up to and including Monday, the 7th.

Agent Ross said that up to 9 o'clock this morning the Grand Rapids and Indiana road had sold over 700 tickets at this point. Mr. Ross had not counted the sales for the Pennsylvania, but they were immense.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

The old smoke stack at the Wabash blacksmith shop is being replaced by a new one today.

The Pennsylvania shops will run all day tomorrow and the Wabash shops until noon.

Nickel Plate Engineers Daniel McFee, Frank Telley and George Quidore have taken a Fourth of July lay off.

The Pennsylvania motive power ball team will play the Kerr Murray team tomorrow afternoon, at Centlivre park.

Harry C. May, who has been appointed master mechanic of the Big Four shops at Louisville, is a recent graduate of Purdue university.

Victor Kalteyer, of the Kerr Murray works, is en route to Davenport, Iowa, where he will represent the Indiana Turners at a meeting next week.

The employes of the Bowser works were surprised and pleased yesterday by the announcement that the works would remain closed until Monday.

George Jautz, tinner at the Wabash shops, and William Engelking, a stone cutter for Geaks, will go to Rome City today to spend a few days in fishing.

The "Three Little Taylors," a society composed of Wabash shopmen, is arranging to give a social at the corner of Wells and Cass streets some time in the near future, possibly next week.

Conductor M. E. Baum, of the Nickel Plate, has gone to Bonna to see his wife, who is lying ill there. Mr. Baum had a finger crushed at Bellevue a week or two ago and has been off duty since on that account.

John E. Hebert, apprentice at Wabash machine shop, had an eye injured yesterday by a piece of steel getting into it. The particle was removed but not before the eye became quite sore, and he will be off duty a few days.

Arthur H. Meyers has resigned a clerical position in the Nickel Plate offices to accept one in the office of Shop Clerk J. H. Hobrock, of the Pennsylvania. This change is the result of the resignation of a clerk several weeks ago.

New equipment will be placed on the Burlington and Western road, which on Sunday was transformed from narrow to standard guage. The old locomotives have been sidetracked and the box cars are being sold to farmers for grain bins at $12 apiece for the car body.

Charles Holman, who works in the foundry department of the Electric works, had his lower lip split in two and his tongue cut yesterday by the handle of a pair of tongs being driven into his mouth. The wound is a painful one and will keep him from work for awhile.

Indianapolis Journal: "As a result of the joint conference of the Order of Railway Train Conductors and Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, who have been in session for a week at Kansas City, adjourning on Tuesday, both organizations will hereafter be governed by an advisory board. One of the delegates says the conference was in line with the general trend of the age—that is these days organizations with similar objects are joined in one large body."

CATARRH

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the head and the bronchial tubes soon fill up again with mucus.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane or inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system, involving the Stomach, Kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh. S. S. S. expels from the circulation all offensive matter, and when rich, pure blood is again coursing through the body the mucous membranes become healthy and the skin active, all the disagreeable, painful symptoms disappear, and a permanent, thorough cure is effected. S. S. S. being a strictly vegetable blood purifier does not derange the Stomach and digestion, but the appetite and general health rapidly improve under its tonic effects. Write us about your case and get the best medical advice free. Book on blood and skin diseases sent on application.

It is gratifying to be one of the first to introduce a really meritorious article, but still our store is noted for being the first to secure the best of everything. We were fortunate in getting hold of a lot of Munyon's Witch Hazel Soap which we were selling at about half price. This soap is sold all over the country at 15 cents a cake; our price is 10 cents. You can pay 25, 50 and 75 cents a cake for soap and not get as good. Dr. Munyon says that every ingredient in this soap is pure enough to eat; that it is free from all animal fat and alkalies; that it will positively improve any complexion and cure nearly every form of skin disease. The tremendous sale we are having on this soap shows that the public appreciates this new toilet requisite. Mothers find it just the soap for baby as it cures hives, prickle heat and all forms of rash. It is said to be the best shampoo made. It quickly cures dandruff and most scalp diseases. It is largely used by gentlemen for shaving as it softens the beard and prevents all skin irritations.

A farmer who was driving to town from the east had a runaway on Maumee avenue, his team becoming frightened by the discharge of a big firecracker. The team ran several blocks, but was stopped before any serious damage was done.

James Pratt, of Adrian, Mich., is the guest of his son, Fred Pratt, of the east side. When the large smokestack for the Pennsylvania machine shop was built, in 1865, Mr. Pratt was employed by his uncle, George Pratt, on the work, and carried all the bricks up the interior of the stack, accomplishing the ascent by means of hickory stakes driven in the masonry as the structure rose. The stack is now in process of demolition and Mr. Pratt was on hand to view the rapid destruction of what he remembers as a piece of painstaking labor.

THE KING'S CONDITION.

London, July 4.—The bulletin regarding King Edward's condition posted at Buckingham Palace at 10 o'clock this morning says:

"The king had a good night and, indeed, slept better than at any time since the operation. The wound now gives less trouble, and his majesty can move in bed with greater ease. His majesty's appetite has improved.

Signed "Treves,
"Laking,
"Barlow."

DRUNKEN CATTLE.

Chicago, July 4.—Maddened and half intoxicated from alcohol used in "distillery slop" fed to them, a big herd of cattle stampeded in the stockyards yesterday. More than a score of the animals met death in the rush. Sooner were enacted that for terror and blood made old stockmen and cowboys turn their backs. One man nearly lost his life. The herd stamped and numbered more than 600. A closed gate caused the trouble, and before it was over twenty-one animals lay in a heap, some impaled on horns, others with neck broken and others frantically climbing over the squirming mass, while some of the survivors leaped fences and escaped to various parts of the yards. A dead wall of cattle finally brought the rush of animals to a halt. The herd only stopped when the pressure behind gave way because of lessening numbers.

TO BE BRIDE OF A SOLDIER.

Des Moines, Iowa, July 4.—The wedding of Miss Mary Pierce to Lieut. Harold Hammond, of the Ninth infantry, will take place on the evening of July 9. Invitations were issued today. The couple will locate at West Point, where the lieutenant has lately been assigned to duty as instructor in Spanish.

Master Hugh M. Bailey, son of Rev. J. Webster Bailey, is spending a couple of weeks on the farm of Mrs. Virginia C. Meredith at Cambridge City. Mrs. Meredith is one of the most noted stock raisers of the west.
